LIVING WATERS CHURCH

Living Waters Church, Box 72, 9095 Glover Road Fort Langley BC, V1M2R4

Job Description: Media Production Director

Living Waters Church is a healthy, growing church with gatherings in Willoughby and Fort Langley (which is also where our offices are located).

We have 7 core values that help guide us: Authenticity, Community, Spiritual Formation, Recognizing & Releasing, Worship, The Great Commission, and Generosity. These are foundational to our community.

Overview

The role of Media Production Director is one which serves to increase LWC's presence online through video and media content and social media connection.

This is a full time role which reflects a 35 hour work week in accordance with LWC policy. This role reports to the lead pastor with other designates to be determined.

Qualifications

This position requires:

- A character above reproach, an embracing of Pentecostal theology (PAOC statement of fundamental & essential truths), and an ability to embody Living Waters' values.
- The schooling, training or qualifications to meet the demands of the role.
- Core Competencies: Team player, effective communicator (oral and written), detail ordiented, technical knowledge and experience in a relatable role.

Role (Full Time)

Video Production (50%)

- Oversee all video production for LWC.
- Produce online Sunday gatherings.
- Produce resources for various networks, areas of ministry and church life.

Communications & Social Media (30%)

- Manage all social media (with communications lead).
- Partner with communications lead on other overlaps.

Service Production (10%)

- Support sound & media training and needs in locations in connection with video production realities (with music network lead).

General (10%)

- General team responsibilities.

Desired Outcomes:

- Church at Home Service Producer

    - Co-produce, record, edit service with a goal of increasing participation through quality of service's audio/visual standards.
- Kids at Home
    - Co-produce, record, edit with a goal of increasing participation through quality of Kids at Home audio/visual standards.
- Co-produce, record and edit other resources for church use.
    - Priorities and goals to be determined.
- Help to increase social media following and participation.
- Help to increase sound and media quality with comminications lead and music network lead, with set goals and priorities in each.