JANUARY— The Holy Name
Jesus - IHS –monogram from the Greek IHSOUS

Jan 5th/6th, 2019–
SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

Jesus, source of overwhelming joy, captivate our hearts, our lives, our imaginations. Lift us up and give us grace to shine humbly and honestly with the radiance of loving you. Amen.

Jan 12th/13th, 2019-
FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD:
Our light for life is Jesus.
"You are my son,
with you I am well pleased."

Jesus, in your Baptism you draw us to yourself through our Baptism. Show us the ways that our lives can bring life to others, and give us the courage to choose what is pleasing to you. Amen.

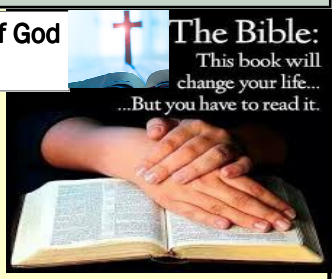
The Pope's Universal Intention for January: Evangelization—
That young people, especially in Latin America, follow the example of Mary and respond to the call of the Lord to communicate the joy of the Gospel to the world.

Answer Archbishop Smith's call to spend more time in the word. Check these out And Spread the Word!

Archbishop Smith's Pastoral Letter "Living in the Word of God" invites us all to renew our focus on Scripture as we answer the call of the Holy Father Pope Francis. The complete letter can be found at caedm.ca/letter & www.sacredheartchurch.ca. A portion follows:

'HEAR the Word of God and DO It'



The only sure foundation of our lives is Jesus Christ. He alone brings to light the meaning of our existence and makes known its definitive direction. Sadly, however, world events manifest a turning away from God and thus from hope. They demonstrate that too many people are building their lives on foundations other than the person and message of Jesus Christ, which is to say they are constructing the edifice of their existence upon nothing more than shifting sand (cf. Matthew 7:24-27).

Archbishop's Devotions in 140: As we begin a new liturgical year, am I a sign of hope for all to see?

So often we say that God dwells in us, but it is better to say that we dwell in Him, that He enables us to dwell in His Light and love. –Pope Francis, Gaudete et Exsultate (Rejoice and Be Glad), 51

OPENING THE WORD

Reflections for the Sunday Readings from Canadian Catholic Conference of Bishops www.cccb.ca

Jan 5th/6th, 2019– SOLEMNITY OF THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD : "Arise, shine, for your light has come!"

The opening words of the first reading give us a command we are often hesitant to follow: what if people think we are arrogant? But we are "sharers in the promise" of Jesus, and we have so much good news to share. Like the Magi, who make an extraordinary trip to pay homage to the newborn Christ, we are invited to be the heralds of the Good News, to proclaim that Jesus is born and there is freedom in Him who lived and loved, died and rose for us. Let yourselves be overwhelmed with joy – from time to time, if you can't manage it constantly – and dare to invite others in.
Our light has come. Let it shine!

Jan 12th/13th, 2019- FEAST OF THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD:

Our light for life is Jesus. The 1st and 2nd readings point to Jesus, Light in the darkness, fulfilled Son of the promises of the covenant. It's curious…that His Baptism is the Gospel, when the readings seem so much like Advent. But the words God speaks from heaven are the key: "This is my Son, the Beloved, with you I am well pleased." Jesus, in a Baptism like ours, gives witness to the way that we are called to live. When we follow him, our lives become a light and hope for others. By our Baptism, we are joined to Jesus, Priest, Prophet and King, so serve, proclaim and liberate others in this Year of Mercy. Who is hungry that God is asking you to feed? Who is alone that you can visit? Who is afraid that you can sit with? If we are too busy, too stressed, too overwhelmed to do what you know Jesus would do, then we are probably doing the wrong things. The extent to which we do whatever Jesus tells us, moment by moment, is the extent that we can hear God saying to us, "You are my son/daughter, with you I am well pleased."
