Archbishop Smith's call to spend more time in the " Living Word".

Archbishop Smith's Pastoral Letter "Living in the Word of God" invites us all to renew our focus on Scripture as we answer the call of the Holy Father Pope Francis. The complete letter can be found at caedm.ca/letter & www.sacredheartchurch.ca. A portion follows:

What message do I communicate to others by my way of living, patterns of thought and speech, or modes of behaviour? Out of concern for reputation or fear of rebuke, do I stay silent when circumstances require that I speak the truth? The Holy Spirit has been given that we might be witnesses. Let us call upon him to provide us with the ability to do so and thus put into practice the Word of God.

Archbishop's Devotions in 140:

Do I live out my love for Christ by treating his word always with a humble gratitude and reverence?

World Communications Day

Catholics are invited to reflect upon the media and Social communications and how these influence our lives, to support that which promotes the Gospel, and reject that which promotes values contrary to spiritual growth. The following are portions taken from the "MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR THE 53rd WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY":

"The Net is an opportunity to promote encounter with others, but it can also increase our self-isolation, like a web that can entrap us. Young people are the ones most exposed to the illusion that the social web can completely satisfy them on a relational level.

...If a family uses the Net to be more connected, to then meet at table and look into each other's eyes, then it is a resource. If a Church community coordinates its activity through the network, and then celebrates the Eucharist together, then it is a resource."

Reflections for the Sunday Readings from Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops

June 9, 2019 – PENTECOST SUNDAY (Solemnity): Peace is the gift of the Spirit for life among the faithful. This year has been marked by violent acts in churches, synagogues, and mosques around the world. Outside religious buildings, wars, school shootings, and domestic violence continue to wreak havoc around the world. Our conversations about politics are marked with personal attacks and depersonalizing labels. Violence has a firm hold on our world. When Jesus comes to the disciples in the upper room, He brings them peace and commissions them to go out and bring peace to the world. Tellingly, the gift of the Holy Spirit makes us agents of forgiveness, which is an essential part of our peace work. In the face of shocking and tragic violence, there is so much we can do to build a more peaceful world: eradicate violence from our speaking, learn more effective peaceful parenting, practise political engagement that stays focused on ideas and policies without condemning people, and be agents of forgiveness and healing. Peace is essential to an abundant life; what am I doing to say yes to Jesus' gift of peace?

June 16, 2019 – THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY: God's life is marked by delight and play. In the first reading, the mystery of the Trinity is explained with a beautiful and simple image: while God was creating the world, Wisdom (a frequent name for the Holy Spirit) was "His delight day by day, playing before Him all the while, playing on the surface of the earth; and I found delight in the human race." Read that again and let it sink in. The persons of the Trinity played through creation, found delight in one another and in what and who they created. What if our witness to the world was that we played well together, and delighted in our families and in all of God's people? What if Christians had a reputation for play and delight? May it be so, because we walk out of here and live it with God's blessing and grace to help us.
