Fifth Sunday in Lent

We are an Affirming Congregation, offering welcome and companionship to all, regardless of orientation or designation.

For thousands of years, this land has been the traditional home of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and most recently, the Mississaugas of the Credit River. It is still home to Indigenous people from across Turtle Island. We are grateful to work, live and worship on this land.

OPENING HYMN #271 There's a Wideness in God's Mercy vs. 1,2,5 to Stuttgart

INVITATION TO WORSHIP

One: In silent sanctuaries, in our homes or apartments,
wherever we are in this moment of worship;

All: God still greets us with joy and wonder.

One: During these days of isolation and worry,
in this time of uncertainty;

All: Jesus still challenges us to follow in his ways.

One: As we care for ourselves and others,
and gather in new ways;

All: We still awaken to find ourselves in the Spirit's embrace.

One: God be with you.

All: And also with you.

One: Let us pray. (all seated) my life, the lives of others, the life of the world.

All: May God forgive you, Christ renew you and the Spirit enable you to grow in love.

One: Amen

LENT MEDITATIONS CONTINUE

You can still sign up to receive these daily devotionals and writings (including past weeks') directly to your inbox from Rev. Karen Bowles. Email communications@metunited.ca.

PASTORAL CARE

Rev. Bowles and Rev. Meyers are connecting with many members and are determining the needs of our community in this challenging time. If you would like a pastoral phone call you can contact Karen at karenb@metunited.ca (416-363-0331 ext. 227) or Jason at jasonm@metunited.ca (416-363-0331 ext. 224).

COMMUNITY SERVICES MINISTRY

Megan Carver, our Outreach and Housing Worker, and Stephanie Cunti, our Community Service Worker, are continuing the important work of outreach, communicating with clients via text, email and phone, and are in the community on a case-by-case basis. Many of the city's most vulnerable are at further risk with a lack of safe and familiar spaces to seek shelter.

STAFF

Administrative staff are working remotely but are still available by phone and email, so don't hesitate to be in touch.

EASTER MEMORIAL GIFTS

We invite you to consider making a gift to Metropolitan's Memorial Fund this Easter in memory of a loved one. We will recognize donor names and the person(s) you wish to remember on Easter Day or you may remain anonymous if you wish. Please mark your gift "Easter Memorial" and include your name and the names of those you wish to remember.

You can reach Sheela in her home office by email or at (416) 363-0331, Ext. 210. You may also donate online at metunited.ca, clicking Donate.

To be included we need your info by end of day Tuesday, April 7. Easter Blessings to you — and thank you for your support.

DONATIONS DURING THIS TIME

The work of Metropolitan continues. While we cannot collect offerings in person, there remain easy ways to contribute - through our Canada Helps page, or by mailing in envelopes and/or cheques to the church. We are grateful for your on-going support through this difficult time. If you have any questions, please contact Elena Pejcinovska, Financial Manager at elenap@metunited.ca or 416-363-0331 ext. 229.

The Official Board of Metropolitan United Church deeply appreciates your financial gifts. We strive to honour our donors' wishes at all times. When gifts are designated for a specific purpose and the need for that purpose has been fulfilled, your Board will redirect surplus gifts to the closest alternative or the area of greatest need. Thank you again for supporting Metropolitan.
