Luke 1:3-4

1. Why do you think that people try to make the Bible out to be an ancient collection of myths?

2. Why is it important to see the Bible as an historical account rather than mythology?

3. Why do you think that Luke thought it was important to write an "orderly account" of the life of Christ? Why such an account still important to us today?

4. How have you been encouraged to trust the Bible more?

5. In the Genesis 3, the serpent seeks to erode humanity's confidence in God's revelation. He asks, "Did God really say?" In what ways is the serpent still asking that question of us today?

6. How are you/we responding to this question?
