

Welcome to the Parish Church of St. John the Divine, Victoria. We are a community of faith in the Anglican Tradition, seeking to live lives of faith, hope and love as part of this community of Downtown Victoria. We are on a journey of learning to be a welcoming, inviting, inclusive and serving community which is open to all.

Our worship reflects our rootedness in the Anglican tradition, whilst drawing on liturgies that reflect the long history and heritage of our Christian faith. Please join in as you feel able, and enjoy the words, music and opportunity for prayer and to be a part of our community.

If our service seems unfamiliar, please follow the cues from our leaflet, the ministers leading the service and those around you. Most of our Sunday morning worship services have the Eucharist, or Holy Communion, at the heart of our worship – please feel free to join us, whatever your tradition, in the sharing of bread and wine, at the station nearest to where you are seated. Gluten free wafers are available at all stations: Please indicate if you need one.

Within the Anglican Church of Canada (under the advice of the Primate and the Chief Medical Officer for Canada) we would ask that bread is not dipped into the wine, as this has the potential to spread infection in a way that the sharing of the cup does not. If you would prefer not to share the cup then receiving only bread is considered ‘full communion’ (also known as ‘Communion in One Kind’).

If there is anything that you wish to talk about, please do take the opportunity to talk to the worship leaders, ministers and other members of the congregation following the service. If you wish to receive prayer for yourself or for another, there will be members of our Healing Prayer group in the south Quadra entrance who would be happy to pray with you as the Holy Communion is shared.

After our service we usually share coffee and an opportunity to get to know one another, in the Church Hall – through the door on the front left hand side. We have many visitors and newcomers here so please make yourself known to folks as you feel comfortable.

You are very welcome here. We don’t always get it right; please let us know when we do, and when we don’t. Please stay and be a part of our family, for however long you would like.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PROCESSIONAL HYMN (Beyond All Mortal Praise)

DARWALL

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

Almighty God

All: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden.
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

GLORIA IN EXCELSIS

Sung by the choir.

Glory be to God on high, and in earth peace, good will towards all. We praise thee, we bless thee, we worship thee, we glorify thee, we give thanks to thee for thy great glory, O Lord God, heavenly King, God the Father Almighty.

O Lord, the only-begotten Son, Jesu Christ; O Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, that takest away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us. Thou that takest away the sin of the world, receive our prayer. Thou that sittest at the right hand of God the Father, have mercy upon us.

For thou only art holy; thou only art the Lord; thou only, O Christ, with the Holy Ghost, art most high in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

CHURCH FAMILY PRAYER

After the prayer the children head to Church School.

Loving God,

All: You've called us to be your family and to celebrate our life together in worship. We pray for all the members of our family, here and absent, and especially for our young people now as they continue their worship. Bless them, and each of us, in fun and learning, in friendship, and love. Amen.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

The Presider invites all to pray. Silence is kept.

Wisdom of God, from the street corners and at the entrances to the city
you proclaim the way of life and of death.
Grant us wisdom to recognize your Messiah,
so that following in the way of the cross,
we may know the way of life and glory;
in the name of Christ we pray.

All: Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

BAS #2

Celebrant The Lord be with you. People And al - so with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts. People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

We give you thanks and praise, almighty God,
through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ,
our Saviour and Redeemer.

He is your living Word,
through whom you have created all things.

By the power of the Holy Spirit
he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature.

He lived and died as one of us,
to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you;
and so he won for you a holy people.

He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows,
and to give up his life on the cross,
that he might shatter the chains of evil and death,
and banish the darkness of sin and despair.

By this resurrection
he brings us into the light of your presence.

Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

SANCTUS (sung by the choir)

*Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God of hosts, Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord Most High.*

*Blessed is he that cometh in the Name of the Lord:
Hosanna in the highest.*

Holy and gracious God,
accept our praise,
through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ;
who on the night he was handed over
to suffering and death,
took bread and gave you thanks,
saying, "Take, and eat:
this is my body which is broken for you."
In the same way he took the cup, saying, "This is my blood which is shed for you.
When you do this, you do it in memory of me."

Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection,
we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you.

We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church.
Gather into one

all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory
through your Servant, Jesus Christ.

All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and for ever.

All: A men A - men A - men.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Ambrosian Chant

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

We break this bread,
to share in the body of Christ.

All: We, being many, are one body,
for we all share in the one bread.

THE COMMUNION

The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

AGNUS DEI (sung by the choir)

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sin of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sin of the world, grant us thy peace.

All are invited to receive communion at the side chapel, at the altar rail, or at the back of the church. Please follow the Greeters' instructions. Receiving bread or wine is considered full communion. It is the practice of the ACC not to dip the bread into the wine. Any not receiving communion are invited to receive a blessing, and to indicate that by holding their arms crossed on their chest.

If you are unable to come to a communion station please make this known to the Greeters and we will bring communion to you.

Gluten free wafers for communion are available. Please request them from the person who is distributing the bread.

Ministry of Healing

We invite those wishing prayer for themselves or on behalf of someone else to come to the front of the line to receive the bread and wine. Immediately after receiving, go to the prayer station in the south Quadra entrance. Briefly state your need. The prayer team will lay hands on your shoulders and will pray quietly for you.

ANTHEM DURING COMMUNION

God be in my head and in my understanding; God be in mine eyes and in my looking;
God be in my mouth and in my speaking; God be in my heart and in my thinking; God be at mine end, and my departing.

Text: Richard Pynson's Horae BVM, 1514. Music: Herbert Howells (1892-1983)

THE COMMISSIONING OF THE COMMUNITY

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

God of abundance,
All: with this bread of life and cup of salvation
you have united us with Christ, making us one with all your people.
Now send us forth in the power of your Spirit,
so that we may proclaim your redeeming love to the world and continue forever in the risen life of Jesus Christ, our Lord.
Amen.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT NOTES

Today is the second week the full choir is back at the Sunday morning service, and is a good opportunity to introduce our MacRae Choral Scholars for this year, three of whom are returning to the position: alto Alana Hayes (UVic Master’s programme); tenor Nolan Kehler (UVic Master’s programme); and bass Felix Buttefield (UVic undergraduate). Our newly-appointed soprano Choral Scholar is also familiar to St. John’s, as she was singing in the choir all last year: Anne van der Sloot (Camosun programme, VCM).

Fourth-year UVic composition and piano student Ethan Hill also returns this year for his second year as Sutton Organ Scholar.

Please say hello to them when you have a chance after the service or at coffee! And if you appreciate what the Choral Scholars and the choirs bring to the worship at St. John’s, do feel free to talk to me about ways in which you can help support this ministry! David

EVENTS

Sunday Reflections - On weeks without other events we offer the opportunity to ask 'what just happened?' at our Sunday service - an open forum to discuss the sermon, liturgy, music, and indeed anything that might have cropped up during our worship services, or about Anglican practice and tradition generally. This takes place at 11:45am, following the 10am service and usually lasts for 45 minutes or so. All are welcome; come, and bring your questions!

Diviners’ Walk – Friday, September 21st – meeting time is 5:30 pm (we wait 10 minutes only for latecomers): Elk Road Walk – Meet at Elk Road, corner of Interurban and West Saanich Roads. Pub: Howard Johnson, Elk Lake Road, 250-658-8989. Please contact Larry Scyner if you plan to come for dinner but not the walk.

Monday Afternoon Book Study begins this Mon., Sept. 17th at 2:00pm. We will start by sharing ideas and concepts about your spiritual journey that you may have read about over the summer. If you haven't read anything except "summer reading", no problem. There will be lots to discuss. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Come and revive your Art & Soul at the art and spirituality group held in the basement space at St. John the Divine every Wednesday afternoon at 1:30pm. Art experience is not necessary! We ask for a voluntary donation of $4.00 per session to provide supplies for those in need. Any questions - please contact Gillian Barlow or Susan McCabe.

Choral Evensong – Sept. 19th and Nov. 21st at 6:30 pm – UVic Interfaith Chapel – Parking Lot #6
Choral Evensong is a 450-year old tradition of the Anglican Church. All are welcome to take part in this short service of music and prayer led by the students of the St. Christopher Singers from Christ Church Cathedral.

Movie Club –

7:00 pm in the Denson Lounge

This Wednesday evening at 7:00 pm we will present our regular "Reel Thought" movie for September in the Denson Lounge at St. John the Divine Anglican Church, 1611 Quadra Street:

The Women's Balcony (Israel, 2016, 96 mins.)

"A bar mitzvah mishap causes a major rift in a devout Orthodox community in Jerusalem." (IMDb) A dramedy (drama-comedy) in Hebrew with English subtitles.

<http://www.imdb.com/title/tt5974460/>

A charismatic new rabbi meets his match in the diverse women of a Jerusalem synagogue in this movie that featured in the Victoria Film Festival two years ago. It is a charming and relatable-to story about love, life, loyalty and legalism. Come for the movie, popcorn, and conversation.

After the August hiatus, our regular third-Wednesday Reel Thought presentations have resumed. October's presentation will be Quartet on Oct. 17th.

Prayer in the Style of Taizé returns this fall on the 3rd Friday of each month (September 21st, October 15th and November 16th) at 6:00 pm at Lutheran Church of the Cross, 3787 Cedar Hill Road. "The exchange with God becomes real for us in prayer; by his Holy Spirit, God comes to dwell within us." Please join us for this hour of spirit-filled worship.

Our friends at St. Matthias Anglican Church, Richmond and Richardson, are opening an art gallery this month. The Chapel Gallery's debut show is Sea Forms, mixed media collages by Jill Ehlert. The show runs from Sept. 21st to Oct. 31st, with an official launch from 5 to 7 p.m. on Sept. 21st, and a talk by the artist. Hours: Saturdays and Mondays, 10 am to 2 pm; Wednesdays, 9:30 to 11:30 am.

Franciscan Spirituality Workshop, Saturday, September 22nd, 10am-4pm - The workshop will include a brief biographical sketch of St. Francis and his new expression of living the Gospel of Jesus in the 12th century. Two stories from the life of Francis will be explored: the Christmas Crèche story and its unfolding of the magnificence of God's Love among us, and the story of the Wolf of Gubbio, which highlights the need for reconciliation within the unity of God's love. The workshop will also include a discussion of the practice of Lectio (reading and savoring the Word of God) and an opportunity to engage in a Lectio exercise. The workshop will conclude with a celebration of the Eucharist. Please bring a brown bag lunch.

Flower Dedications - Because of our declining numbers and the fact that we are all getting older, the Chancel Guild in discussions with Alistair will not be preparing an arrangement for the Chapel after September 23, 2018. We will continue to prepare an arrangement for the Main Altar each Sunday except during Lent and we will have the usual four dedications of two Mains, one Lectern and one Chapel on festive Sundays, i.e. Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas. As well we will continue to order poinsettias and lilies for dedication at Christmas and Easter.

St. John's Community Breakfast in the Parish Hall on Sun., Sept. 30th, 9-10am – pancakes, sausages, tea and coffee. This is a free breakfast. However, as it is Orange Shirt Day, donations are being accepted for The Anglican Healing Fund, which is working at the ongoing process of reconciliation and healing of relationships with First Nations. For more info please contact Cat Small 250-891-4292. Volunteers gratefully welcomed.

Divine Pies - St. John's divine pie makers have been busy, and will have pies (apple, bumbleberry etc.) for sale at the coffee hour on Sun., Sept. 30th.

"Faith in Justice" - The St. John's Social Justice and Action Group (SJAG) is launching a new Wednesday evening series on social justice beginning in October. These sessions are designed to inform and engage our community about important problems both within and beyond the borders of our community and our response to them. The sessions will take place on the second Wednesday of each month, starting at 7:00 pm and running till 8:30 pm. They will occur at St. John's - exact locale TBA. The first two involve presentations by two members of our parish:

Wed., Oct. 10th: Bernice (Bernie) Pauly on Homelessness and Addiction.

Wed., Nov. 14th: Joel Durkovic on Conflict Resolution.

We propose to continue these sessions in the New Year with a likely focus on: governments and Indigenous reconciliation; challenges of democracy and faith; disarmament; the role of Christian intentional communities; gender identity; and the survival of Indigenous languages. Stay tuned!

Announcements

A Prayer Group prays through the week; to request confidential prayers for yourself or others contact Pat Manning at: patriciacmanning@gmail.com or leave the request at the church office.

Prayer is the bedrock of our relationship with God through Christ. Individual requests for intercessory prayer (read at Sunday and weekday services) may be made by filling out a Prayer Request Card available at the back of the church (on the west wall) or by emailing the same information requested on the card to: carolann.zenger@stjohnthedivine.bc.ca.

The September Special Monthly Envelope is for The Food Bank at St. John's & The Alliance Club.

The Food Bank at St. John's provides staple food items to those in need in our community.

The Alliance Club is a drop-in centre for youth on the street. Volunteers from St. John's and the larger community purchase supplies and cook several large casseroles monthly for the Alliance Club.

Property Committee – We are at a crossroads. Our chair doesn't feel qualified in a technical way to do the job, and our trusted friend Chuck has indicated that he wishes to 'retire' in the spring. So how can you help? Our plan calls for a three pronged 'attack'. First, we need a quality survey, an asset management report, which will give us a maintenance plan. We need a part time maintenance/building supervisor. And thirdly, we need you, the members of the congregation, to lend your expertise so that when we have an incident we will know whom to ask to help us towards a happy issue out of all our problems. If all this can be accomplished you'll have a happy chair, the maintenance will be looked after, the committee will be better able to manage our assigned budget, and we together will be able to continue to provide the structure in and from which ministry can be offered.

Wanted - for the nursery: a bright colourful RUG, suitable for toddlers to play on (any size, but no bigger than 12X8 ft.). Please contact Beryl Roundhill at roundhill@shaw.ca or the church office.

Synod Delegates from parishes up island are looking for billets while the upcoming Synod is being held at the Songhees Wellness Centre, 1100 Admirals Road, Sept. 28th-30th. If you are able to assist, please contact Carol-Ann at the church office 250-383-7169 ext. 226.

Let Justice Roll! - The fall edition of “Let Justice Roll!” is now available. This occasional newsletter is a project of the Social Justice and Action Group (SJAG) of the Church of St. John the Divine. In our fourth issue, we have a feature article about one of our parish members, Judy Tethong, and her lifelong work on behalf of Tibet. We also present articles covering such diverse topics as -- Greater Victoria Acting Together (GVAT), Christian Civil Disobedience, Hope in the Middle East, Forgiveness in South Africa, Decolonization in Canada, and the Extraordinary Witness of Mr. Rogers. “Let Justice Roll!” is only available in print/paper copy. Members of the parish can pick up the newsletter at either entrance to the Church, and at Sunday coffee-hour, beginning on Sunday, Sept. 16. Thank you for adding “Let Justice Roll!” to your fall reading!

In an effort to keep the church looking tidy, the pillows that are used by parishioners (for sitting on or for back support) at various times are now kept in a bin under the stairs to the bell tower in the north Quadra entrance. Everyone is welcome to continue to use them, but we would appreciate it if they were returned neatly to the bin at the end of each service.

Social Media – St. John’s is committed to communication. If you would like to share the service on social media please do, but please do so as part of your worship and sensitively. Please feel free to use the hashtag #SJDVic.

Things to nourish our spiritual journey

When the storyteller tells the truth, she reminds us that human beings are more alike than unlike... A story is what it's like to be a human being---to be knocked down and to miraculously arise. Each one of us has arisen, awakened. We do rise. Maya Angelou
