Our Keynote Speaker, Dr. Sylvia Keesmaat, taught Biblical Studies and Hermeneutics at the Institute for Christian Studies for ten years. In 2004 she left full-time academia to pursue her interests in sustainable living.

Dr. Keesmaat will be teaching us what the scriptures say about the Kingdom of God coming on earth in terms of social justice, valuing the earth and looking forward to Jesus' return.

The Reverend Dr. William Morrow is Associate Professor of Hebrew and Hebrew Scriptures at Queen's University. He is an ordained priest in the Anglican Diocese of Ontario. He is married to his best friend, Ruth, and they have 2 children.

Dr. Morrow will delve into the challenging book of Daniel with us.

The Venerable Nancy MacLeod serves in team ministry in Leeds Anglican Ministries - a four parish, five congregation rural ministry, and is Archdeacon of the St. Lawrence. She has served as Deputy Warden and Warden of Lay Readers and is a strong advocate of equipping Lay Leaders for both liturgical and ministry/mission roles. She is a graduate of the Anglican Studies Program at Saint Paul University.

"Now Let Us Pray" will explore the rich resources available for those who lead public prayer, especially the Prayers of the People, look at how we structure and adapt prayers both seasonally and in response to circumstances, help prayer leaders find their own voice, and consider how we best involve everyone in our corporate prayer, including by action and music.
