The Healing of the Paralytic

Mark 2:1-12

A wonderful story related with lots of details by the gospel writer Mark
The story raises many questions, for instance...

· Why wasn't he let into to see Jesus?

· Why does Jesus not give him, in the first instance, what he came for?

· Is it really easier to say 'your sins are forgiven', than to say 'take up your bed and walk'?

This story reveals the heart's ever present question:
'whom will you follow, worship and trust?'
