Season of Lent: a new day, a new start, a new perspective

This Sunday we shall read the story about the Transfiguration of Jesus on Mount Tabor where the appearance of his face became dazzling white. To some, the experience of God could be a blinding experience. In the Bible, the experience of blindness is always a precursor for deeper discovery and encounter (think about Saul, Bartimaeus, and the blind man in John's gospel). Could this Lent be a time for you to explore your spiritual blindness and learn seeing things in new ways anointed by the vision of Christ? So here are some invitations for the upcoming season:

Ancient rituals, new expressions: Join me gathering in the church new courtyard following the 10:00 service to turn last year's palms to ashes. Palm branches represent the love of God revealed through our misplaced hopes. We shall reflect on what we have learned from our "misplaced hopes" last year. The ashes we make will be used for the ecumenical Ash Wednesday Service at Living Faith Lutheran Church at noon this coming week. Come and experience this powerful symbol of wearing ashes on your forehead.

Lenten Fast: giving up chocolate or wine for the sake of your waistline? How about giving up plastic for the sake of the world? A PDF download "Less Plastic for Lent Calendar" was send with the E-Bulletin. Printed copies are also available in the Narthex.

Sign up for a daily meditation: Lent is not Rocket Science: An Exploration of God, Creation, and the Cosmos by Bishop Knisely, who is also a physicist and astronomer. "From the biggest to the smallest phenomena in the universe, this devotional series takes an accessible look at how natural theology can point us to the great mystery and presence of God.

Join a book club or read on your own: 8 people have signed up for the Archbishop's invite to read Gregory Boyle's Barking to the Choir: The Power of Radical Kinship. I wonder what it'd take for the whole parish to read a book this season.

Lovingly always, Clarence

Affirmation of Faith

We believe that when we live in love,
we live in God and God lives in us.

We believe that the mystery we call God
is visible in human form in each of us,
and among all creatures through creation.

We believe that the life and teaching of Christ Jesus set us free from all fears, even the fear of God.

We believe the Spirit of Christ
is made known to us in the breaking of bread,
in our wrestling with Holy Scriptures,
and in being vulnerable to each other in community.

We believe that the Church exists to affirm God's loving presence with us

and to challenge us to give witness to this presence in our love for one another.

We believe that we may respond to the love of God through serving and respecting the dignity of all God's creation.

The Prayers of the People

Please stand, sit or kneel according to your praying custom. Names upheld in the prayers can be found on the Parish List on the back page. You are also welcome to name your loved one(s) aloud or silently in your heart.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant In humility,
as children of God and sisters and brothers in Christ,
we receive God's mercy and respond to God's call
to make new all relationships.

Silence is kept

Merciful Lord, your Spirit hovered over the waters
where diversity sprouted and flourished.

ALL We confess our difficulty to live with legitimate differences.
Forgive us those attitudes of mind, words and actions
that do violence to unity in diversity.

Celebrant Merciful Christ,
grace and joy of the multitude, listener and teacher,
you give birth to new visions of hope
and heal the wounds of mind and body.

ALL We confess that we have failed
to listen to voices different from our own,
failed to say words that bring healing and hope,
and we have perpetuated exclusive attitudes
to those who cry out for solidarity and fellowship.

Celebrant Merciful Lord, you are the source of all creation,
the Eternal and life-giving Word.

ALL We confess that we do not listen to your creation
that groans and cries out for liberation and renewal.
Help us to walk together and to hear your voice
in all living things that suffer and yearn for healing and care.

Celebrant May God, fountain of mercy and grace,
pour over you pardon and peace.

cont'd over→

May love transform you into a source of living waters
to restore your strength.

The Invitation

Receiving Communion

If you know the brokenness of life, its fractures within and its division without, then you have participated in the broken body of Christ and you are invited to share in the breaking of bread. If you desire to know the love of God that overcomes indifference and despair, if you desire the reconciliation that overcomes estrangement and alienation, then you are invited to share the cup of the new covenant.

The bread is received in the open palm. It is usual Anglican practice to drink the wine from the common cup. Both wine and unfermented grape juice are served. If you prefer to receive a gluten-free wafer or grape juice, please inform the person administering the bread or wine when they approach you. If you prefer to receive a blessing instead of Communion, you are welcome to come forward and place your hands across your chest.

🎵 63 Communion Hymn Eat This Bread, Drink This Cup (refrain only)

Prayer After Communion

Celebrant Holy God,

ALL we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ.

May we who are partakers of his table

reflect his life in word and deed,

his power to change and save.

We ask this in his name. Amen.

Pre-order for Lenten Book Club: In this season of Lent, Archbishop Melissa invites you to join her in reading, Barking to the Choir: The Power of Radical Kinship by Gregory Boyle. In a moving example of unconditional love in difficult times, Boyle shares what three decades of working with gang members in Los Angeles has taught him about faith, compassion, and the enduring power of kinship. The book is $30 to order in bulk from Talewind Books. Email the Rector or sign up in the Narthex this week if you'd like a copy to be ready for Lent. There is no age limit for a spiritual adventure!

People expressed some valid concerns over how we are to finance what looks like to be a $30,000 deficit. Church Committee and Trustees are left with the task of reworking the 2019 budget and will present a revised one with recommendations at a Special Vestry Meeting to be held on March 31 at noon. Mark your calendar. More information to come.

St. Hilda's Justice Umbrella Book Study: The Justice Umbrella Ecumenical Book Study will start the final book 'Quest for Respect: The Church and Indigenous Spirituality' in the excellent Mennonite-produced Reconciliation series, on Monday April 1st in the Gathering Room, and continue on 1st and 3rd Mondays 2-4 pm. New participants are most welcome. Please contact John Denham 604-885-7373 to reserve your book approx $10

The two Maggies will draw the guest names at random, and guests will be told the day before the lunch who will be their host. This is a great way to get to know different parishioners a bit better.
