Covid update from the Leadership Board:

The Leadership Board is considering the when and how and other details of Relaunch - resuming church services and other programs. Alberta Health has given the okay to resume worship services as long as the regulations, which changed recently, are followed. We want to ensure that we relaunch well and will include others in conversations about this.

Pastor Gary will be away on holidays later this week through early July. As a result, the Leadership Board has decided to hold off with Relaunch until early August. We may consider having services either outside or in the gym so that distancing is less awkward. Your feedback is welcome. We have scheduled a meeting for July 6 and we have invited a few others to join us in discussing our relaunch.

In the meantime, please connect with others in whatever manner works best respecting health protocols.
