Parish Survey Analysis

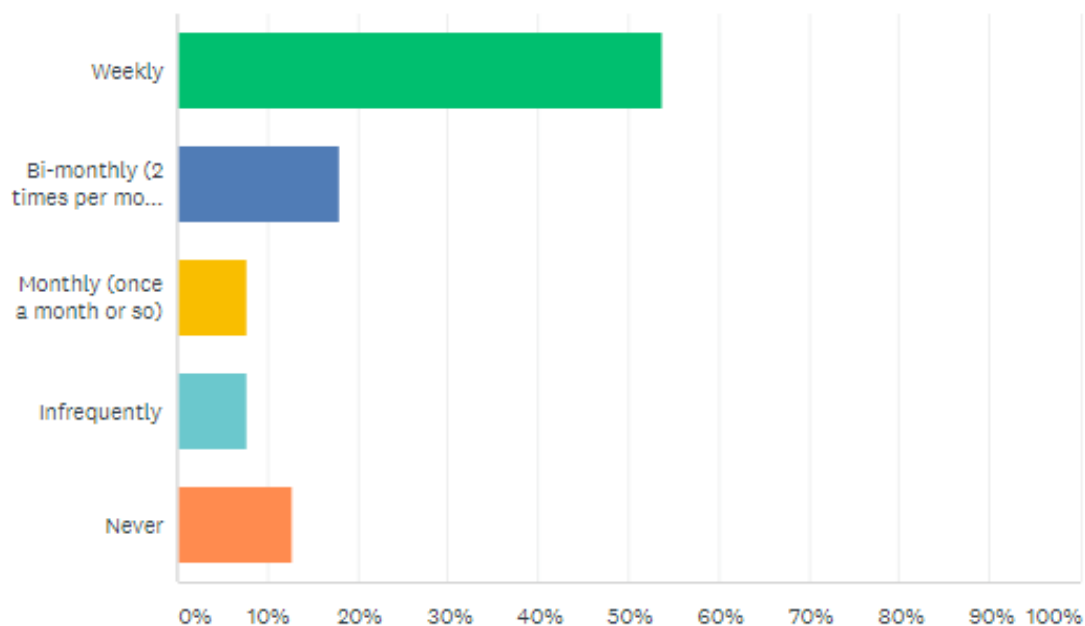

The congregation of the Parish of St. Dunstan were invited to fill out a survey to assist the Parish Council in understanding the different experiences and concerns members have about re-opening.

Here are some of the results

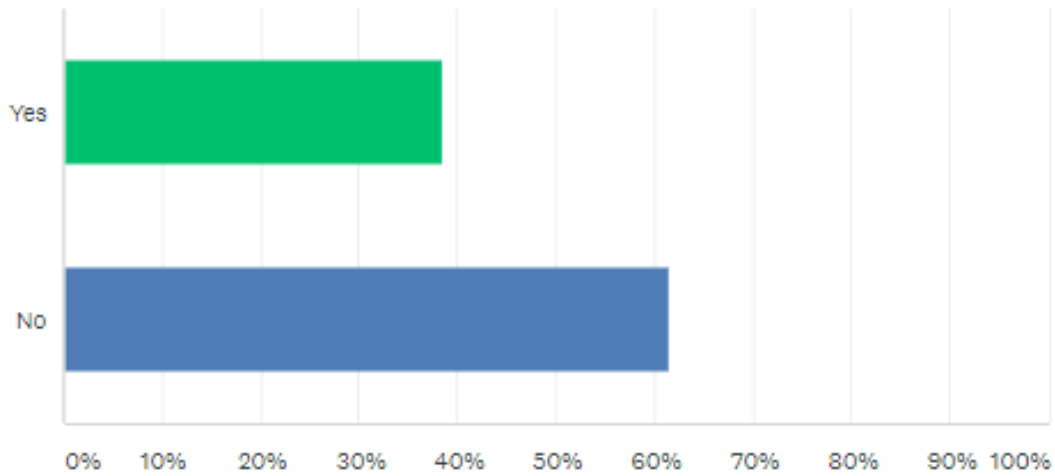

Have you attended on online Zoom service?

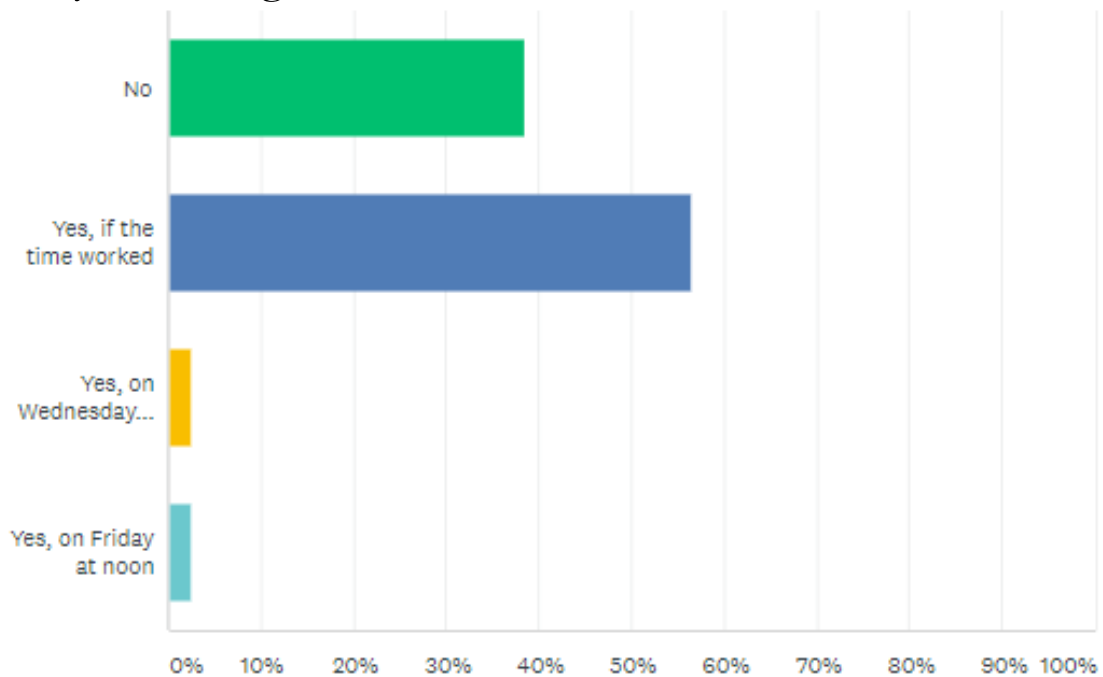

How often have you attended online worship?

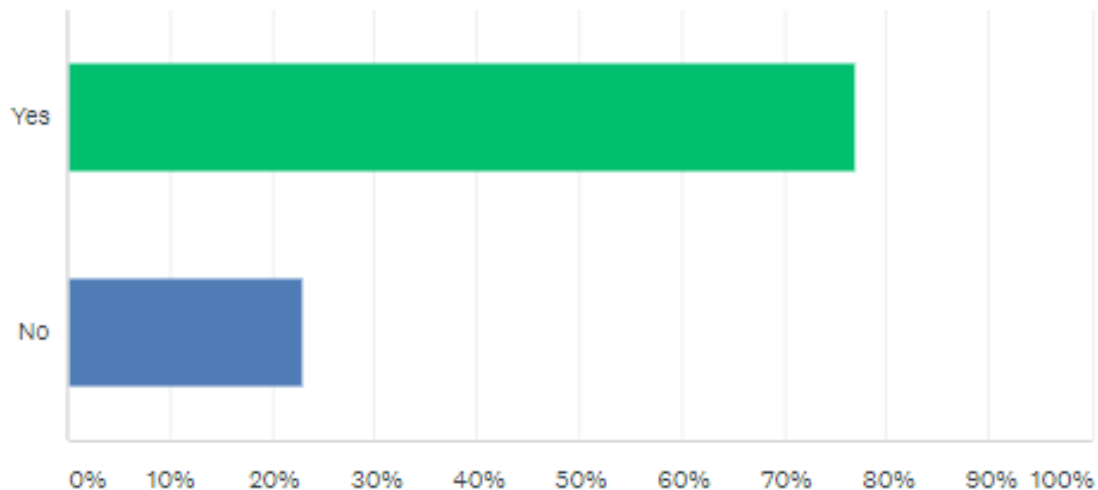

There are several restrictions for in-person worship including, no access to washrooms, no coffee hour, social distancing, masks, and no singing. Considering these restrictions would you attend an in-person worship service?

Would you attend a worship service if it were held at a different time than Sunday morning?

Would you attend an in-person service if there was no communion?

Other questions of a more qualitative kind were asked with several different responses.

If you have not attended an online Zoom service, please indicate why.

- Computer issues
- Timing
- Do not know
- Away
- Not my thing
- Work Schedule
- Not comfortable with Zoom
- Unsure how

If you have attended an online Zoom service, what do you most like about them?

- Connection in safety
- Seeing friendly faces
- Hearing people's voices
- Music
- Sermon
- Different preachers
- Simplicity of attending church
- Liturgy
- The commute
- Enjoying coffee during the service
- Comfortable and intimate
- While in-person is preferable, this meets a need

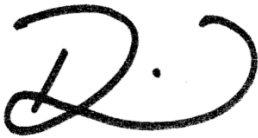

What do you most miss about church before the pandemic?

- Communion
- Community and socializing

- ☞ Singing together
- ☞ Participation in the service
- ☞ the sanctuary
- ☞ Coffee Hour
- ☞ Lighting candles
- ☞ the choir
- ☞ the people
- ☞ Healing prayer
- ☞ Messy Church

Thank you to everyone who participated in our survey. We will keep the congregation informed of the next steps in our plan to re-open the building.
