On the third day there was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. ² Jesus also was invited to the wedding with his disciples. ³ When the wine ran out, the mother of Jesus said to him, “They have no wine.” ⁴ And Jesus said to her, “Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come.” ⁵ His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever he tells you.”

9 When the master of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and did not know where it came from (though the servants who had drawn the water knew), the master of the feast called the bridegroom ¹⁰ and said to him, “Everyone serves the good wine first, and when people have drunk freely, then the poor wine. But you have kept the good wine until now.”

Amos 9 : 11 – 14 The Restoration of Israel

“In that day I will raise up the booth of David that is fallen
and repair its breaches,
and raise up its ruins
and rebuild it as in the days of old,
that they may possess the remnant of Edom and all the nations who are called by my name,” declares the LORD who does this.

“Behold, the days are coming,” declares the LORD,
“when the plowman shall overtake the reaper and the treader of grapes him who sows the seed;

the mountains shall drip sweet wine,
and all the hills shall flow with it.

I will restore the fortunes of my people Israel, and they shall rebuild the ruined cities and
inhabit them;

they shall plant vineyards and drink their wine,
and they shall make gardens and eat their fruit.

I will plant them on their land,
and they shall never again be uprooted out of the land that I have given them,”
says the LORD your God.
