Part 14 - The Rule That Matters

We have a special guest speaker, Dr. Isaac Odame as we continue our series, "Beyond Your Current Mind." The Good News about becoming a Christian is that we are saved by the love and grace of God (through Christ's death and resurrection) alone and not by obeying a set of religious rules and regulations. Does this mean the God-given commands in the Bible don't count? Is there a rule that really matters?

Scripture: Mark 12:28-34

Discussion Questions

1. Love is an indispensable characteristic of any good relationship. But, what do people mean when they talk about love?
2. What does loving God really mean? Dive deeper.
3. Discuss some of the challenges of loving others, particularly those who are "hard to love"; how can we love them as commanded?
4. Share how love for God and love for others brings purpose and meaning to our lives. Give practical and real-life examples.
