

Journey Through James, Sermon # 1 "At Your Service"

Text: James 1:1

I. JAMES' RELATIONSHIP TO _____ (v.1)

- He was our Lord's brother in the _____.
- He was the _____ of God and the Lord Jesus.
- Jesus is co-_____ with God.
- It typifies the _____ and fusion of the Old and New Testaments concerning God's relationship to His Son and vice versa.
- This phrase symbolizes the _____ of James to his Master.

II. JAMES' RELATIONSHIP TO THE _____ (v.1)

- There were two "dispersions"—
The _____ dispersion (Jews living outside of Palestine in the Gentile world)
The _____ dispersion (Jews who lived in the Greek-speaking countries)
- Concerning James' relationship to them—
He was their _____.
He was their _____.

CONCLUSION

- Four applications for each of us—
  1. First, we should _____ in being called the servants of Jesus Christ.
  2. Second, we need a revival of servanthood as it relates to _____ aspects of our lives.
  3. Third, we cannot lead others until we have learned to _____ to and serve others.
  4. Fourth, we represent _____ dispersion.
