

Church Family,

This week our Sunday mornings return to a more “normal” schedule. We’re reopening Sunday School at 9:45am and Worship will be back at 11:00am. Please note the worship service time—we’re back to our more traditional time of 11:00am for worship in the Sanctuary. We’ll still be broadcasting our service online for those who aren’t yet ready to return. For those who are, we continue to encourage social distancing, we’ve got hand-sanitizing stands in each of our main foyers, and we welcome mask-wearing.

Here is some important information regarding Sunday School. We have many classes that will be meeting this weekend, but not all of our classes are ready to reopen—and that is understandable. Here is a list of the classes that will be starting immediately. Other classes will be reopening at a later date.

For all of our adult Sunday School class members: If you don't see your class in the list above, what should you do if you wish to come to Sunday School? You have a couple options. First, you can try out one of the other adult classes until yours reopens. Or second, you can participate in our "Auxiliary Class." Nate DuBose will be leading this class in our old fellowship hall (aka, the "Preschool Church Building" attached to the breezeway). This class is designed especially for Sunday School members who wish to return but whose classes have not yet reopened. Nate is an excellent Bible teacher and I'm sure you will benefit from the fellowship and teaching in his class. Once all of our Sunday School classes have reopened, the plan will be to shut down our "Auxiliary Class" and Nate will return to teaching one of our men's classes.

Please note that our S2 Youth Group (6th-12th gd.) will be meeting for their weekly worship service Sunday night at 6:30pm in the Sanctuary.

Attention to all our ladies: there will be a drive through baby shower honoring Ryan and Mariah Herndon this upcoming Thursday night, September 17th, from 6:00-7:30pm at our Family Life Center. It's a boy! Ryan and Mariah are registered at Walmart.com and Amazon.com.

I look forward to seeing you all Sunday. May God bless our church as we progressively reopen our ministries. May He give us both courage and wisdom.

In Christ,
Bro. Deek
