

Prayers of the People for Sept. 13th, 2020

Let us bring our common supplications to the God who loves us with a steadfast love. Respond to “God of great love” with “hear our prayer”.

We pray for a world in flux. We don't know what next week will bring. In the uncertainty there is much anxiety. We pray to you, our loving Creator - help us to find our peace and rest in you. Help us to be beacons of hope and promise to a world that is struggling. Help us to love in the ways you have loved us.

God of great love. Hear our Prayer.

We pray for your church this day. As we gather in very different circumstances we pray for the Body of Christ throughout the world. For those gathered, like us, in masks and at a distance, for those who worship online at home, and for those so isolated that their praise is a lonely task. May your church this day be blessed with the renewal of your Spirit. Flood our hearts, enliven our minds, sustain our spirits, that the church may be a true reflection of you in this world.

God of great love. Hear our Prayer.

We pray for our own community. For those who are struggling with physical illness, for those who are trying to live with the challenge of mental illness and for all caregivers. Let us offer our prayers to God for the people in our hearts and on our minds...

Offer to each your healing love. Grant to them strength for the journey they face. And bless them with hope in the midst of their pain.

God of great love. Hear our Prayer.

God of steadfast love hear our prayers- the one's spoken, the one's unspoken and the one's we cannot put into words. We pray in the name of our loving Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.
