SECTION FIVE: Please indicate your agreement with these doctrinal statements

1. That the Bible is the verbal and plenary inspired Word of God, completely reliable, infallible, and inerrant in all of its parts and in the whole? Yes No
2. That the believer today has access to those inspired preserved words in the form that God intended it? Yes No
3. That the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit are co-equal and co-eternal members of the holy trinity, yet they are not separate gods, but are fully one God? Yes No
4. That salvation is of God and is received by grace through faith apart from works? Yes No
5. That Christ was virgin born, sinless in His life, deity, and incarnation; was crucified in a substitutionary death for us, buried and arose victoriously from the grave; ascended visibly and bodily to heaven; and one day in the future – maybe soon! – will return bodily to rapture the saints prior to the Great Tribulation, prior to the millennial reign? Yes No
6. That the saved will spend eternity in heaven with God and the unsaved will be eternally separated from God in a literal hell? Yes No
7. That the believer in Christ is eternally secure at the time of their salvation? Yes No
8. That Scriptural baptism is by immersion and is for believers only? Yes No
9. That the literal six day Genesis account of the origin of this world and mankind is absolutely accurate? Yes No
10. That salvation is available to all as a free gift from God, and whosoever will receive it may do so; therefore, all believers are to preach the gospel and work diligently to bring the unsaved to Christ? Yes No

If you indicated that you are not in agreement with these doctrines (you answered “NO”) please explain where you disagree and why.
