

Questions for discussion:

1. How is the coronavirus crisis impacting your life? Good and bad.
2. In what ways has the present crisis forced you to re-evaluate your Christian values, commitments, priorities, and lifestyle? In other words, how has it caused you to reflect on what is really important?
3. In what ways does this present situation force you to reconsider what it means to BE the Church? Be specific.
4. Someone has said that this present crisis and accompanying financial melt down will have a profound and lasting impact on how we order our lives going ahead. Discuss
5. In what ways have the events of the last few weeks affected your relationship to God?
6. What practical, lifestyle changes can you make that can help you bring heaven to earth?
7. Reflect on the words of Ecclesiastes "God makes all things beautiful in it's time."