

Transforming QUESTIONS

Participants Guide

Transforming QUESTIONS

© 2015 Forward Movement
412 Sycamore Street, Cincinnati, OH 45202-4195

Transforming Questions is a curriculum developed by Forward Movement, a ministry of the Episcopal Church, that has been adapted with permission for the Diocese of New Westminster. The original program is available from Forward Movement at www.forwardmovement.org and was developed with generous support by the Episcopal Church's Constable Fund. The original program is © 2015 Forward Movement, while changes are the property of the Diocese of New Westminster.

The Participant's Guide is a companion to the Transforming Questions course, which has been supported by a generous grant from The Episcopal Church's Constable Fund. Transforming Questions was written by Melody Wilson Shobe and Scott Gunn.

Scripture citations refer to the New Revised Standard Version Bible, although any version is appropriate.

Diocese of New Westminster
ANGELICAN CHURCH OF CANADA

Transforming QUESTIONS

Contents

INTRODUCTION | 02

SESSION 1 | 05

Can we question our faith?

SESSION 2 | 10

Who is Jesus?

SESSION 3 | 15

Why did Jesus have to die?

SESSION 4 | 20

What is a baptized life?

SESSION 5 | 26

How should I read the Bible?

SESSION 6 | 31

Is prayer answered?

SESSION 7 | 36

Why is there suffering?

SESSION 8 | 42

What happens after death?

SESSION 9 | 48

What is the Church for?

SESSION 10 | 53

What does it mean to be Anglican?

SESSION 11 | 57

Where do we go from here?

Transforming QUESTIONS

WELCOME

Welcome to Transforming Questions! Whether you are new to the Christian faith or a longtime church member seeking a refresher, this is the place for you. Over the next few weeks, you will be invited to engage in faithful questioning with the companionship of a leader and in the midst of a community.

In this course, as you gather for fellowship, teaching, and conversation, you will wrestle with some of the most basic questions of our faith: Who is Jesus? Does God answer prayer? Why do bad things happen? In the act of asking these questions, we hope you will see your faith transform, deepening and developing from something simple and superficial to something complicated and rich. And perhaps, in the act of asking questions, you might see yourself transformed, as the answers that you find, or the new questions that you discover, demand that you respond, changing not only what you think but also how you live. It's an exciting journey: full of twists and turns, ups and downs, as you wrestle anew with your faith.

This book is your companion to the Transforming Questions course, a kind of guidebook for the journey. In the pages that follow, you'll find an outline of each class session, which includes references to the Bible passages and quotations that you will hear each week. We hope this will allow you to listen, follow along, and perhaps return to read and reflect on what you've heard. We've also included space for you to take notes, jot down additional questions, or add your own reflections. At the end of each outline are the discussion questions that you will explore in your small groups.

So come, you who are seekers and you who are members, you who are old and you who are young, you who are questioning for the first time and you who are questioning for the thousandth time. Together may you find that you share the same questions; together may you discover, not easy answers, but the still, small voice of God speaking in your midst.

Session 1

Can We Question Our Faith?

Transforming QUESTIONS

Can we question our faith?

Opening Prayer

O God of the unexpected, you take what is old and make it new, and what is dead and bring it to life; you take our false expectations and transform them into your truth. Help us to accept the challenge of your call, so that, trusting in your promise, we journey by faith in Jesus Christ. Amen.

(Alternative Collects, p.80)*

Confronting Misconceptions

- Faith as opposite of doubt
- Faith as blind acceptance, without questioning

Biblical witness of questioning and doubt

- Abraham and Sarah (Genesis 15:1-15)
- Moses (Exodus 3:4-15; 4:1-17)
- David/psalmist
 - Psalm 13:1-2
 - Psalm 22:1-2
 - Psalm 44:23-24
 - Psalm 121:1
 - Psalm 139:7
- Mary (Luke 1:26-38)
- Thomas (John 20:24-29)
- Paul (Acts 22:6-11)
- Even Jesus himself! (Matthew 27:45-50)

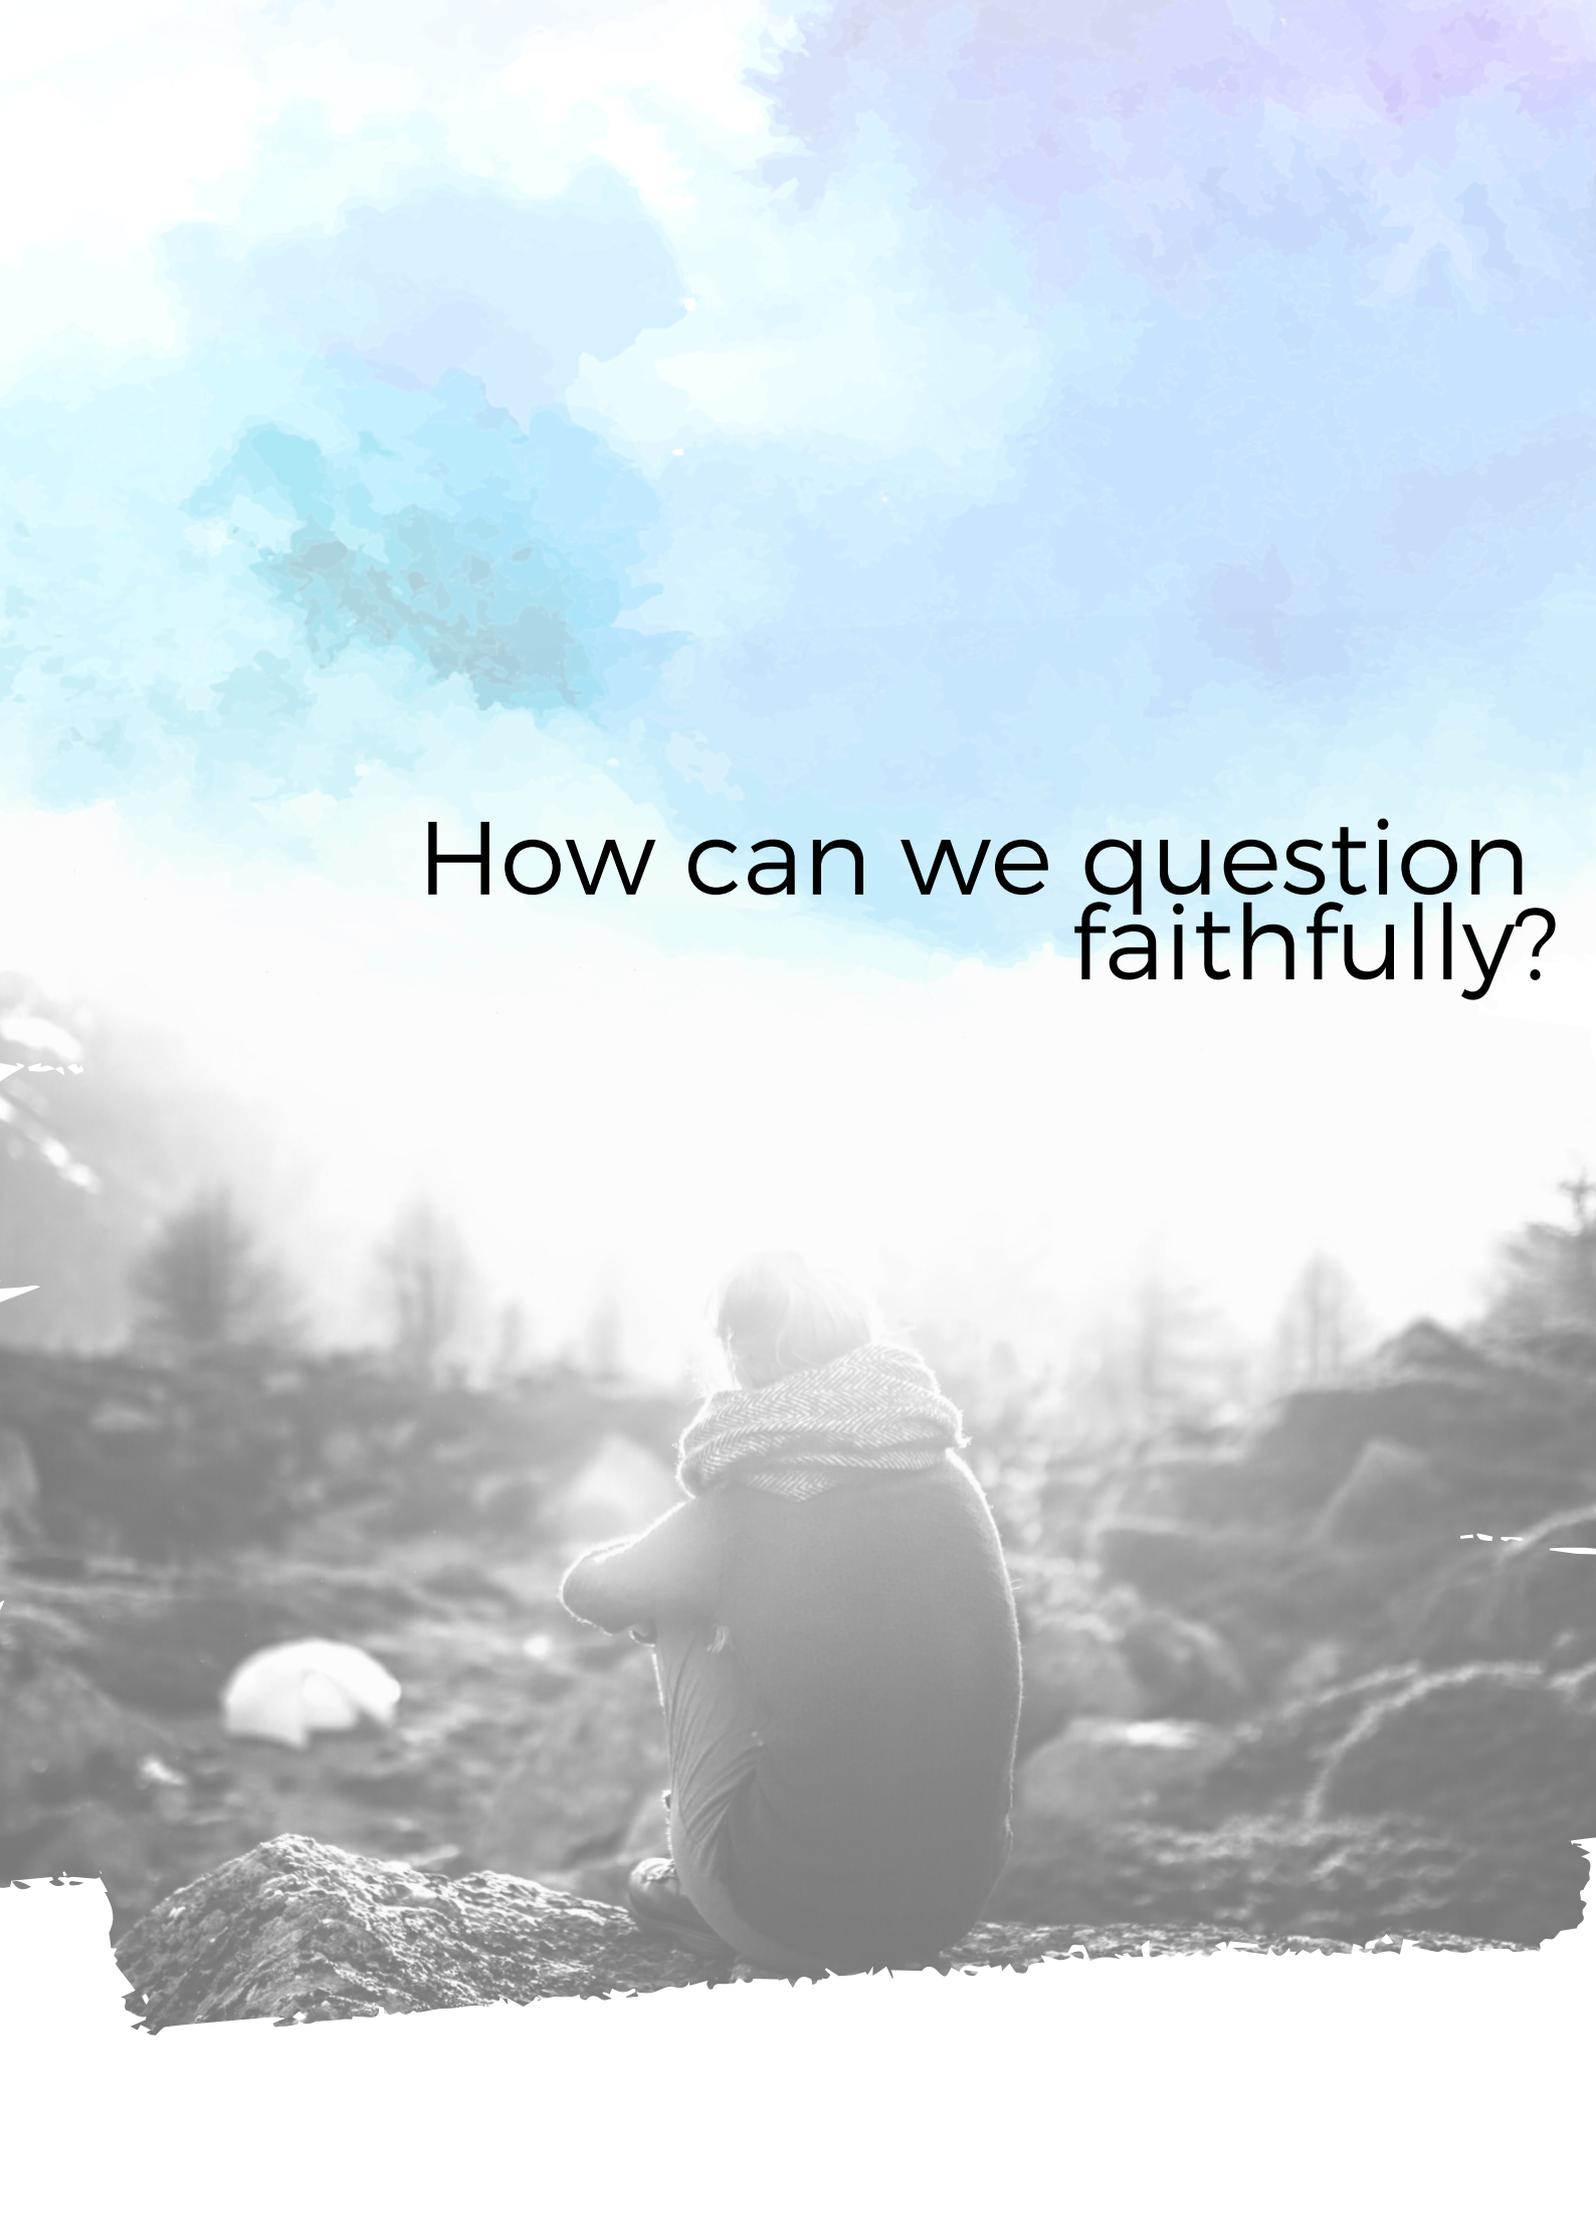

Questions as expression of faithfulness

- Questions as part of relationship
- Questions as a way to grow
- Questions as part of being a student (“disciple”)
- Questions as a form of learning (Catechism)

The opposite extreme of “never question” is “question everything”

- Taking questioning too far
- Questions as weapons
- Questions as tests
- Questions for their own sake

Notes:

A black and white photograph of a person sitting on a large rock in a rugged, rocky landscape. The person is seen from behind, wearing a dark jacket and a light-colored scarf. They are looking towards a bright, hazy sky where the sun is low on the horizon, creating a strong backlighting effect. The foreground and middle ground are filled with large, dark rocks and some sparse vegetation. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

How can we question faithfully?

Session

2

Who is Jesus?

Transforming QUESTIONS

Who is Jesus?

Opening Prayer

Creator, we give you thanks for all you are and all you bring to us for our visit within your creation. In Jesus, you place the Gospel in the centre of this Sacred Circle through which all of creation is related. You show us the way to live a generous and compassionate life. Give us your strength to live together with respect and commitment as we grow in your Spirit, for you are God, now and forever. Amen.

*(A Disciple's Prayer Book, Anglican Council of Indigenous Peoples)

Historically, who is Jesus?

- Tacitus and Suetonius
- Josephus
- Agreement among many groups that Jesus was a historical person
 - That he lived
 - That he was a “good person”
 - That he was a “prophet”
 - That he died

Unique claim of Christianity

- That Jesus was a historical person—and also God
- That he lived, died, and was resurrected

Sources for Christian belief

- What Jesus said about himself
 - John 5:17-18; 8:58; 10:30
 - Mark 2:5-7 and Isaiah 43:25
 - Mark 14:61-62
 - “I am” statements
 - His claims about himself were so audacious, that they led to his death (John 10:33)
- What others said and believed about Jesus
 - Peter (Matthew 16:16), Thomas (John 20:28), the centurion (Mark 15:39)
 - Paul (Acts 9:1-20)
 - Saints through time

C.S Lewis

“I am trying here to prevent anyone saying the really foolish thing that people often say about Him: I’m ready to accept Jesus as a great moral teacher, but I don’t accept his claim to be God. That is the one thing we must not say. A man who was merely a man and said the sort of things Jesus said would not be a great moral teacher. He would either be a lunatic—on the level with the man who says he is a poached egg—or else he would be the Devil of Hell. You must make your choice. Either this man was, and is, the Son of God, or else a madman or something worse. You can shut him up for a fool, you can spit at him and kill him as a demon or you can fall at his feet and call him Lord and God, but let us not come with any patronizing nonsense about his being a great human teacher. He has not left that open to us. He did not intend to.” (Mere Christianity)

Session 3

Why did Jesus
have to die?

Transforming QUESTIONS

Why did Jesus have to die?

Opening Prayer

O Holy and Immortal One, we veil our faces before your glory, and bow before the cross of your wounded Christ. With angels and archangels we praise you, our Mercy, and we bless you, our Compassion, for in our brokenness you have not abandoned us. Amen.

(Alternative Collects, p.20)

Why did Jesus have to die?

- A difficult question asked by people of all ages from the beginning of Christian history
- Area of theology called “atonement”

Centrality of Jesus’ death for belief

- Cross as the symbol of our faith
- Story of death and crucifixion central to the gospels
- Jesus predicted his death many times
- The rest of the New Testament spends a lot of time talking about Jesus’ death

Biblical metaphors for Jesus’ death

- Redeem or ransom us from slavery
 - Galatians 4:4-7
 - Matthew 20:28
- Satisfy or pay our debt
 - Romans 6:23
- Atonement for our guilt (substitutionary penal atonement)
 - Isaiah 53:5
 - 1 Peter 2:24
- Cleanse our sin
 - Hebrews 9:14
- Metaphors express the idea that Jesus saves us
 - From evil
 - From death
 - From ourselves

Death as a choice?

- Scripture says that Jesus chose to die
 - John 10:17-18
 - Matthew 26:52-56
- Why does Jesus choose to die?
 - John 15:12-13
 - 1 John 4:9-10
 - Romans 8:31-39
 - Ephesians 1:17-21
- Saint John Chrysostom’s Easter sermon

Why did Jesus
choose to die?

Session 4

What is a baptized life?

Transforming QUESTIONS

What is a baptized life?

Opening Prayer

Eternal Father, who at the baptism of Jesus revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit, keep your children, born of water and the Spirit, faithful to their calling; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

(Book of Alternative Services, pg. 348)

The realization that Jesus chose to die for love of us begs the question: How are we called to live for love of him? What do I have to do to be a Christian?

There are lots of answers to these questions:

- Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17, Deuteronomy 5:6-21)
- Jesus' "add on" to the Ten Commandments (Matthew 19:16-21)
- The Greatest Commandment (Matthew 22:34-40 via Deuteronomy 6:5, Leviticus 19:18)
- The New Commandment (John 13:34-35)

That's all well and good but...

- That seems like a pretty high calling!
- And how does that love get lived out in practice?
 - When I'm stuck in traffic or buying groceries
 - When I'm in the voting booth or at the soccer field
 - When I'm attending church and when I'm not
 - When I'm with family or friends or strangers

Biblical Christians throughout the centuries have wrestled with this question. In the Anglican Church, our liturgy proclaims what lives of love look like in the Baptismal Covenant.

- Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?
- Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?
- Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?
- Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?
- Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?
- Will you strive to safeguard the integrity of God's creation and respect, sustain, and renew the life of the earth?

(The Book of Alternative Services, p. 159)

That's pretty daunting; in fact it's impossible.

- If living this kind of life is dependent on us, then we will fail.
- But the response of the Baptismal Covenant is just as important as the questions asked: "I will, with God's help."

As Christians, we do not engage in the practices of our faith alone, but we are fueled by and filled with the very power of God, the Holy Spirit living and working in us.

- When he dies, Jesus promises that he will not leave his followers, will not leave us, alone. (John 14:15-20)
- The Holy Spirit fills the community of believers and empowers them to do all sorts of wonderful things. (Acts 2:1-47)
- That same Spirit is what abides in us and allows us to fulfill the promises of our baptism. (Ephesians 3:14-20)

Knowing that the presence and power of the Holy Spirit are with us, assured that all the promises of baptism are not something that we must do with our own strength but some- thing that we get to do "with God's help," our question and perspective change.

- "What do we have to do for God?" becomes "What can we do with God in us?"
- "How should I now live?" is instead "How can I now live?"
- "What do I have to do?" becomes "What can I do, with God's help?"

Small Groups

- When you hear the question, "What do Christians have to do?", what things come to mind?
- Which baptismal promise resonates the most with you and why?
- Which baptismal promise is the most difficult for you and why?
- Do you ever do difficult things because of your faith? What is that experience like?
- How might it change the practice of your faith to focus on the power of God within you?

What can we do,
with God's help?

Session 5

How should we read the Bible?

Transforming QUESTIONS

How should we read the Bible?

Opening Prayer

Blessed Lord, who Eternal God, who caused all holy scriptures to be written for our learning, grant us so to hear them, read, mark, learn, and inwardly digest them, that we may embrace and ever hold fast the blessed hope of everlasting life, which you have given us in our Saviour Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

(The Book of Alternative Services, p. 391)

Most people believe the Bible is important, but many of us don't read it. Why?

- The usual excuses: too busy; it's for other people; we learned it in Sunday school.
- We don't know how to read it.

Metaphors for understanding the Bible

- Rule book
- Operating instructions
- Inspirational message
- Love story

The Bible is all that and more!

- Sixty-six books; a library, collection
- Different languages, different writers
- Different genres
 - Historical narrative (1 Kings 14:25-31)
 - Law (Exodus 21:28-32)
 - Poetry (Psalm 42:1-7)
 - Prophecy (Isaiah 2:2-4)
 - Narrative (Matthew 4:18-22)
 - Letters/Epistle (Colossians 4:15-18)
 - Apocalyptic (Revelation 6:1-8)
- All these differences help us learn to read the Bible more faithfully

Because in the midst of the differences, we believe the Bible has a unity

- Not about the authorship but about the inspiration
- May not be literal but it's true

Notes:

How can we read the Bible?

PSALM 25:21

- 21 May integrity and uprightness preserve me,
for I wait for you.
22 Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his troubles.

I Will Bless the Lord 26 Of David.

- 1 Vindicate me, O LORD,
for I have trusted in my integrity,
and I have trusted in the LORD without wavering.
2 Prove me, O LORD, and try me;
test my heart and my mind.
3 For your steadfast love is before my eyes,
and I walk in your faithfulness.
4 I do not sit with men of falsehood,
nor do I consort with hypocrites.
5 I hate the assembly of evildoers,
and I will not sit with the wicked.
6 I wash my hands in innocence and go around your altar, O LORD, proclaiming thanksgiving aloud,
and telling all your wondrous deeds.
7 O LORD, I love the habitation of your house,
the place where your glory dwells,
and I will not let my feet depart from the house of my God, nor will I let my hands
leave your commandments, for your servants have been righteous,
and your heart
has been true.
8 My heart is not set on silver,
nor do I desire
gold.
9 My heart
is not set on
fine gold,
nor do I desire
silver.
10 My heart
is not set on
fine gold,
nor do I desire
silver.
11 My heart
is not set on
fine gold,
nor do I desire
silver.
12 My heart
is not set on
fine gold,
nor do I desire
silver.

552

PSALM 28:3

553

- all the days of my life,
to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD
and to inquire in his temple.
9 For he will hide me in his shelter in the day of trouble;
he will conceal me under the cover of his tent;
he will lift me high upon a rock,
he will lift my head shall be lifted up above my enemies all around me, and I will offer in his tent
sacrifices with shouts of joy;
I will sing and make melody to the LORD.
7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry aloud;
be gracious to me and answer me!
You have said, "Seek my face."
8 My heart says to you,
"Your face, LORD, do I seek."
Turn not your face from me.
O you who have been my help,
Cast me not off; forsake me not.
10 For my father and my mother have forsaken me, but the LORD will take me in.
11 Teach me your way, O LORD, and lead me on a level path
because of my enemies.
12 Give me not up to the will of my adversaries;
for false witnesses have risen against me,
and they breathe out violence.
13 I believe that I shall look upon the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living!
14 Wait for the LORD;
be strong, and let your heart take courage.
The LORD is my strength and My Shield and My Salvation.

Session 6

Is prayer answered?

Transforming QUESTIONS

Is prayer answered?

Opening Prayer

O God of peace, who taught us that in returning and rest we shall be saved, in quietness and confidence shall be our strength; by the might of your Spirit lift us, we pray, to your presence, where we may be still and know that you are God; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(The Book of Alternative Services, p.554)

One of the most frequently asked questions of faith: Does God answer prayer?

Many people understand prayer as

- Something we do on Sundays
- Something we do by rote
- Leaving a voicemail for God
- A vending machine

But that's not how the Bible describes prayer

- Noah after the flood (Genesis 8:20-21)
- Moses and Miriam after deliverance (Exodus 15:1-3)
- The psalms record people bringing all their thoughts and emotions to God, good and bad (Psalm 4:1, 5:3, 17:1)
- People who encounter Jesus respond in prayer and praise.
 - Mary's Magnificat (Luke 1:46-56)
 - Zechariah's Benedictus (Luke 1: 67-79)
 - Simeon's Nunc Dimmitis (Luke 2:25-32)
- Paul urges believers to pray at all times and in all circumstances (1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, Philippians 4:4-7)
- James encourages believers to offer prayers, in good times and in bad (James 5:13-16)
- And, most importantly, Jesus prays (Mark 1:35, Luke 6:12, Luke 22:41-44)
- That's a requirement he passes on to his disciples and to us (Matthew 6:7-13)

Prayer as a conversation that takes place in relationship

- It involves both talking and listening as you share your life
- It involves times of comfortable silence
- It's not always about getting answers to questions or about receiving things

Notes:

Does God meet us
in prayer?

Session

7

Why is there suffering?

Transforming QUESTIONS

Why is there suffering?

Opening Prayer

Almighty God, who art afflicted in the afflictions of thy people: Regard with thy tender compassion those in anxiety and distress; bear their sorrows and their cares; supply all their manifold needs; and help both them and us to put our whole trust and confidence in thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Book of Common Prayer (1962) p. 54)

Basically every meaningful conversation about religion addresses the question "why?"

- Why does evil exist?
- Why is there so much suffering and pain?
- Why do bad things happen to good people?

The question of "Why?" arises when what we believe about God comes into conflict with what we see and experience in the world.

- We believe that God is:
 - Omnipotent: all-powerful
 - Omniscient: all-knowing
 - Omnibenevolent: all-loving; all-good
- But if God is all-powerful, all-knowing, and all-good, then why do bad things happen to good people? Wouldn't an all-loving, all-good God want to remove all suffering and pain? And if God wants to remove all suffering and pain, wouldn't an all-powerful God be able to do so?

Why does evil and suffering exist? Christianity has answered this question in a variety of ways.

- What goes around comes around; people eventually get what they deserve
- People get what they deserve in the afterlife, if not in this life
- Evil is merely the absence of good; God doesn't cause evil
- Suffering exists to teach us things; evil and suffering have a reason
- Evil exists because of human free will
- Evil isn't really evil in God's view; humans simply can't see the big picture
- God doesn't cause suffering—something or someone else does

Moving from "Why?" to "Where?" Where is God when suffering happens?

- Bible verses
 - Daniel 3:19-25, Psalm 23:4, Romans 8:38-39
- To the question "Where is God?" Christians proclaim Emmanuel, "God is with us."

- As Christians we proclaim that our God became human, lived, suffered, and died an untimely death, so that we would never again have to go through the brokenness, grief, suffering, and death of this world alone.
- Where is God when bad things happen?
 - God is with each person who dies, for God has died before.
 - God is with each family who grieves, for God knows the grief and loss of a child.
 - God is with each of us who grieve and question and yearn and long for a world where this is not possible, for God grieves and questions and yearns and longs for that world as well.

First we move from “Why?” to “Where?” And then, perhaps we can ask further questions, those that demand something, not of God, but of us: “What?” and “How?”

- What am I being called to do in response to the evil of this world?
- How can I respond to the suffering that I encounter?

Small Groups

- Which of the answers to “Why does evil and suffering exist?” do you find most compelling? Why?
- At a time when you were struggling, have you ever had someone give you an “answer” that was unsatisfying or hurtful? What was that experience like?
- All of the different “answers” for the presence of suffering and evil are supported by Bible verses. What might the presence of so many different answers in the scriptures say to us? Does it surprise you to see so many different ways of understanding this in the Bible?
- How might what you’ve heard tonight inform the way that you interact with people who are suffering? What are some ways that we can be with people - Who are in pain without diminishing or explaining away their experience?
- Have you ever had an experience of God’s presence with you in a time of suffering or pain (your own or someone else’s?) How did that experience inform your understanding of suffering?

Where is God when suffering happens?

Session 8

What happens
after death?

Transforming QUESTIONS

What happens after death?

Opening Prayer

God unlimited by mortal fear or the tomb's cold grip: in the lingering dark give us grace to know your life triumphant, your love undimmed, and your grace affirmed in the face of Jesus Christ, the firstborn from the dead. Amen.

(Alternative Collects, p.22)

We've all seen billboards or heard street preachers talk about heaven (or more likely hell)

- Use catchy slogans about heat or smoking and eternity
- Emphasize where we're going when we die
- Try to instill a sense of fear
- Portray belief in God or being a Christian as a means to an end

Most of us wonder about what happens after we die but much of what we have heard comes not from our faith but from popular culture. So what does the Bible actually say about heaven, hell, and eternity?

Hell

- Sheol
- Hades
- Gehenna
- Luke 16:19-31

Heaven

- Old Testament: Shamayim—the place where God lives.
- New Testament:
 - Echoes the Old Testament understanding; it's the place where God lives
 - It is also where Jesus is from and returns to
 - Jesus, by virtue of coming from heaven, dying, being resurrected, and returning to heaven opens the passageway to heaven (the place where God is) (John 6:35-40)
- Actual description
 - Very little
 - Revelation 21:21—streets of gold and pearly gates part of an extended vision or image
 - But neither Revelation nor any other scripture describes heaven as a place focused on comfort and happiness, enjoyment and leisure. Every reference to heaven makes it clear that God is at the center of what's to come.

- What will be most memorable about heaven is the nearness to God's presence (Revelation 7:9-17)
- Our activity in heaven will not be playing games but joining with angels and archangels and all the company of heaven in the worship and praise of God (Revelation 5:11-14)
- Heaven is not about us as individuals or even the whole of humanity but about the view that through Christ all creation is being redeemed (Romans 8:19-23)

So what can we say about heaven and hell?

- Kingdom of heaven
 - Described in parables (e.g. Matthew 13:24-47)
 - Heaven is mysterious, valuable, surprising, and grows rapidly
 - We should pray for it to come
 - It is very near, among us, already here (Matthew 3:2, 4:17, 10:7; Luke 17:20-21)
- The rest of the New Testament echoes these ideas
 - 1 Corinthians 2:7-9
 - Ephesians 2:4-7
 - Ephesians 1:9-10
 - Philippians 3:20

“What happens after death?” is not necessarily our best question.

- Many catechisms pose the question: “What is the Christian hope?”
- The response: “The Christian hope is to live with confidence in newness and fullness of life, and to await the coming of Christ in glory, and the completion of God's purpose for the world” (The Book of Common Prayer, p. 861).
 - A question about life, as well as death
 - A question about here and now as well as then and there
 - A question about God's purpose rather than our desires
 - A question about the whole world, all of creation, rather than just ourselves
- The Christian hope is a much bigger hope, a much richer promise, than just getting to go someplace nice when we die.

What is the Christian hope?

Session 9

What is the Church for?

Transforming QUESTIONS

What is the Church for?

Opening Prayer

Most gracious God, we humbly beseech thee for thy holy Catholic Church. Fill it with all truth; in all truth with all peace. Where it is corrupt, purify it; where it is in error, direct it; where any thing is amiss, reform it; where it is right, strengthen and confirm it; where it is in want, furnish it; where it is divided and rent asunder, make it whole again; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Book of Common Prayer (1962), p. 39)

"Spiritual, but not religious"—a belief that Church is not necessary to the Christian faith.

- Belief that church=services
 - Then, if the worship service is flawed or boring, there's no reason to go to church.
- Belief that church=building
 - If that's true, then the church is just another building that might sometimes contain or point to God. But there are other equally valid places to meet God, like in nature or on golf courses.
- Belief that church is for me, for us.
 - The purpose of church is to make us feel good, so we stop going if it doesn't make us feel good, or if something else makes us feel better.

The biblical understanding of Church is not about services or a building or something that is "for me."

- Holy Temple
 - (Ephesians 2:19-22, 1 Peter 2:4-5, 9-10)
- Body of Christ
 - (1 Corinthians 12:12-31, Romans 12:4-8)
- Family or Household
 - (Galatians 3:25-29, Galatians 4:4-7)
- Light
 - (Revelation 1:10-12, 20; Matthew 5:14-16)

We come to see that Church is not for me at all.

- It's for God
- It's for others

Church often misses the mark.

- Just as marriage is the beginning of a struggle to make love work, Church is a beginning
- Not perfect, just forgiven
- Communion of sins, forgiveness of saints

Session 10

What does it mean to be Anglican?

Transforming QUESTIONS

What does it mean to be Anglican?

Opening Prayer

O God, who wonderfully created and yet more wonderfully restored the dignity of human nature: Grant that we may share the divine life of him who humbled himself to share our humanity, your Son Jesus Christ; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God for ever and ever. Amen.

(Book of Alternative Services, p.275)

Some rather limited notions of what Anglicanism is all about

- The result of Henry VIII needing to get a divorce in order to marry someone new
- The state religion of the United Kingdom
- Teacups and cakes

Paul Avis's views on the distinctive character or personality of Anglicanism.

He calls this the "vocation" or "special calling" of Anglicanism. Anglicanism "attempts to hold together... aspects of the Church that in some traditions are allowed to drift apart, or become polarized or remain seriously imbalanced...Anglicanism seeks to hold these truths together in theology and practice in order that it may hold people together."

- Catholic and reformed
- Episcopal and synodical
- Universal and local
- Biblical and reasonable
- Faithful to tradition and open to fresh insights

Ways to describe in more detail the personality or character of Anglicanism in terms of attitudes and actions

- Rooting ourselves in tradition
- Living our lives in the light of the Biblical stories of the people of God
- Loving the questions
- Savoring and protecting God's creation
- Holding fast to community
- Understanding and living our life of faith as a journey
- Enacting God's compassion and justice
- Living creatively in the tension between apparent opposites

Session 11

Where do we go
from here?

Transforming QUESTIONS

Where do we go from here?

Opening Prayer

Merciful God, creator of the peoples of the earth and lover of souls, have compassion on all who do not know you as you are revealed in your Son Jesus Christ. Let your gospel be preached with grace and power to those who have not heard it, turn the hearts of those who resist it, and bring home to your fold those who have gone astray; that there may be one flock under one shepherd, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

(Book of Alternative Services, p.312)

Where have we come from? Over the past ten sessions, our questions have transformed.

- Can we question our faith? > How can we question faithfully?
- Who is Jesus? > Who do you say that I am?
- Why did Jesus die? > Why did Jesus choose to die?
- What do we have to do? > What can we do, with God's help?
- How should I read the Bible? > How can I read the Bible?
- Does God answer prayer? > Does God meet us in prayer?
- Why is there suffering? > Where is God when suffering happens?
- What happens after death? > What is the Christian hope?
- What is the Church for? > What is my role in the Church?
- What does it mean to be Anglican? > What about Anglicanism most resonates?

What are we?

- We are questioners, God-wrestlers, identities not mutually exclusive with faithfulness.
- We are Christians, those who bear the name of Jesus Christ, believing him to be who he says he is—both human and God.
- We are saved, whatever metaphor we use to understand that salvation, by Jesus Christ who chose to die, for love of us.
- We are people called to live in the light of Christ's self-sacrificial love, empowered by the Holy Spirit to embody the reality of our baptismal promises in this world.
- We are people of the Book, the Bible, understanding that the messy and difficult stories included in its pages are also the Word of God.
- We are people of prayer, bringing all of our lives, all of our hopes, hurts, love, and anger to God in holy conversation.
- We are a light in the darkness, a living proclamation of God's love in the midst of the sin and brokenness of the world.
- We are people of eternity, who live not in fear of hell but in the grip of a Christian hope, which proclaims that we will all be judged by the God of mercy.
- We are the Church, the Holy Temple, the Body of Christ, the Family of God, the Light of the World, flawed and broken but forgiven and holy, God's people just the same.

That's where we've come from. That is who we are. So, where are we going?

- We continue our pilgrimage, our journey
 - Abraham (Genesis 12:1-9)
 - The call of the disciples (Matthew 4:19, 8:22, 9:9, 16:24, 19:21, etc.)
- We continue with tools for the journey
 - The Bible
 - A good study Bible with notes is a great place to start. The New Oxford Annotated Bible, Harper Collins Study Bible, and New Interpreter's Study Bible are all great options. Some people prefer a more contemporary rendering like The Message
 - Introducing the New Testament by Mark Powell
 - An Introduction to the Old Testament by Walter Brueggemann
 - The Good Book by Peter Gomes or The Bible Makes Sense by Walter Brueggemann
- The Book of Alternative Services / The Book of Common Prayer
 - The Divine Office (p. 35, BAS; p. 1, BCP)
 - Morning and Evening Prayer on Anglican Church of Canada website: <https://www.anglican.ca/about/liturgicaltexts/>
 - Home Prayers (p. 687, BAS)
 - Prayers and Thanksgivings (p. 675, BAS)
 - Prayer: Finding the Heart's True Home by Richard Foster
- Our tradition and history
 - The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church
 - The Story of Christianity (Volumes 1 and 2) by Justo Gonzalez
 - Christianity: the First Three Thousand Years by Diarmaid MacCulloch
- The stories of the saints
 - For All the Saints: the calendar of Saint's days with prayers, biographical information, and primary source material. Available online: <https://www.anglican.ca/wp-content/uploads/ForAlltheSaints.pdf>
- The practices of our faith
 - Practicing our Faith by Dorothy Bass
 - The Heart of Christianity by Marcus Borg
 - Being Disciples by Rowan Williams

Where do we go
from here?

About Forward Movement

Forward Movement is committed to inspiring disciples and empowering evangelists. While we produce great resources like this book and the Transforming Questions course, Forward Movement is not a publishing company. We are a ministry.

Our mission is to support you in your spiritual journey, to make stronger disciples and followers of Jesus Christ. Publishing books, daily reflections, studies for small groups, and online resources is an important way that we live out this ministry. More than a half million people read our daily devotions through Forward Day by Day, which is also available in Spanish (Adelante Día a Día) and Braille, online, as a podcast, and as an app for your smartphones or tablets. It is mailed to more than fifty countries, and we donate nearly 30,000 copies each quarter to prisons, hospitals, and nursing homes. We actively seek partners across the Church and look for ways to provide resources that inspire and challenge.

A ministry of The Episcopal Church for more than seventy-five years, Forward Movement is a nonprofit organization funded by sales of resources and gifts from generous donors. To learn more about Forward Movement and our resources, please visit us at www.forwardmovement.org or www.AdelanteEnElCamino.org.

We are delighted to be doing this work and invite your prayers and support.