

A little history of,

St. Mark's Contemporary Worship Band, House of the Risen Son

1989-90

Leif and Nancy Meland came to St. Mark
Dan Hoeger was Pastor

1991

Dan discovered that Leif played guitar; knowing, also, that his wife Yumiko played bass guitar and that Joani Laginess played piano, a thought was laid in his mind. Dan asked about starting a contemporary service, and a trio was formed.

1992

After much practice the Holden Evening Prayer was ready for the Lenten service.

After Lent the "band" started to learn "Now the Feast and Celebration"

I don't remember the dates but soon after the "trio" was formed and word was out our numbers started to grow. Soon, P. Dan said we should have a leader...and as I grimaced and looked straight ahead, I didn't notice everyone else step back.... And I became the Leader.

Bob Cymes quickly joined playing guitar adding his special sound as well as singing; and seeing we had a sound problem, he took over making us sound good as well.
Elizabeth Borguno joined on flute
Brian Borguno on drums

Then came (and some left) many: (order?)
