

Welcome to the Parish Church of St. John the Divine, Victoria. We are a community of faith in the Anglican Tradition, seeking to live lives of faith, hope and love as part of this community of Downtown Victoria. We are on a journey of learning to be a welcoming, inviting, inclusive and serving community which is open to all.

Our worship reflects our rootedness in the Anglican tradition, whilst drawing on liturgies that reflect the long history and heritage of our Christian faith. Please join in as you feel able, and enjoy the words, music and opportunity for prayer and to be a part of our community.

If our service seems unfamiliar, please follow the cues from our leaflet, the ministers leading the service and those around you. Most of our Sunday morning worship services have the Eucharist, or Holy Communion, at the heart of our worship – please feel free to join us, whatever your tradition, in the sharing of bread and wine. Gluten free wafers are available: Please indicate if you need one.

Within the Anglican Church of Canada (under the advice of the Primate and the Chief Medical Officer for Canada) we would ask that bread is not dipped into the wine, as this has the potential to spread infection in a way that the sharing of the cup does not. If you would prefer not to share the cup then receiving only bread is considered ‘full communion’ (also known as ‘Communion in One Kind’).

If there is anything that you wish to talk about, please do take the opportunity to talk to the worship leaders, ministers and other members of the congregation following the service. If you wish to receive prayer for yourself or for another, there will be members of our Healing Prayer group in the south Quadra entrance who would be happy to pray with you as the Holy Communion is shared.

After our service we usually share coffee and an opportunity to get to know one another, in the Church Hall – through the door on the front left hand side. We have many visitors and newcomers here so please make yourself known to folks as you feel comfortable.

You are very welcome here. We don’t always get it right; please let us know when we do, and when we don’t. Please stay and be a part of our family, for however long you would like.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

LIGHTING OF THE ADVENT CANDLE

Please turn to face the west end of the church.

Minister: Blessed are you, loving God, creator of the Universe

All: For you have made all things, and love your creation.

Minister: Gracious God, you have made light and dark, day and night, we give thanks for the wholeness of your life. We remember that in light things are clearer, and in darkness we may learn to trust in you and celebrate your mystery.

All: For darkness and light are the same to you.

As these Advent lights remind us of the light brought to us from our history, and our welcome into your Church in baptism, we pray that we too may be people of light and life,

You are God through all time – God of the prophets of old – Miriam, Nathan, Deborah, Amos, and Huldah, who declared your truth and justice, and spoke out against the powerful. May we know you in this time and in this place as the God of now and of always, God of promise, and God of hope.

Minister: Blessed are you, loving God, creator of the Universe.

All: For you have made all things, and love your creation.

Children and youth continue their worship in the Parish House and will rejoin us for communion.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And also with you.

PRAYERS OF PENITENCE AND FORGIVENESS

The priest introduces the prayers, after which the Kyrie Eleison is sung by the choir:

Kyrie eleison; Christe eleison; Kyrie eleison.
(Lord have mercy; Christ have mercy; Lord have mercy.)

The priest reminds us of God's healing and forgiveness.

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, who sent your servant John the Baptist to prepare your people to welcome the Messiah, inspire us, the ministers and stewards of your truth, to turn our hearts to you, that when the Christ shall come again to be our judge
we may stand with confidence before his glory;
who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

All: Amen.

THE PROCLAMATION OF THE WORD

THE FIRST READING

Isaiah 11:1-10

Hear what the Spirit is saying.

All: Thanks be to God.

PSALM (sung by the choir)

72:1-7, 18-19

Give the king your justice, O God, and your righteousness to the king's son;
That he may rule your people righteously and the poor with justice;
That the mountains may bring prosperity to the people, and the little hills bring righteousness.
He shall defend the needy among the people; he shall rescue the poor and crush the oppressor.
He shall live as long as the sun and moon endure, from one generation to another.
He shall come down like rain upon the mown field, like showers that water the earth.
In his time shall the righteous flourish; there shall be abundance of peace till the moon shall be no more.
Blessed be the Lord God, the God of Israel, who alone does wondrous deeds!
And blessed be his glorious name for ever! and may all the earth be filled with his glory.
Amen. Amen.

THE EPISTLE

Romans 15:4-13

Hear what the Spirit is saying.

All: Thanks be to God.

We believe in one God; Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE CELEBRATION OF THE EUCHARIST

OFFERTORY HYMN (CP 106)

BANCROFT ASCENSION

THE PRAYER OVER THE GIFTS

God our strength,
we are nothing without you.
Receive all we offer you this day
as you sustain us with your mercy;
in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

All: Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Liturgy of the Island, Prayer C

The musical notation consists of two staves. The first staff has four measures, alternating between 'Priest:' and 'All:'. The lyrics are: 'The Lord be with you. And al-so with you. Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.' The second staff has two measures, both labeled 'Priest:'. The lyrics are: 'Let us give thanks to the Lord our God. It is right to give our thanks and praise.'

It is indeed right that we should praise you,
God of love, our source and our fulfilment, for you create all things and in you we live and move and have our being.
Your wonder is manifest in land and sea and sky.
You made us in your image.
And even though we turn from you,
again and again you call us to yourself,
and in every age, promise liberation.
As a mother gathers her children, you embraced a people as your own,
to nurture them in the way of compassionate love.
You sent Jesus among us,
incarnate of the Holy Spirit and born of Mary.
Jesus revealed your love for all Creation,
and showed us the way of reconciliation.
Having lived among us - Jesus suffered the cross,
Died,
And in rising again became the firstborn of the renewed family.

And so as we gather around your table,
With saints of every age and your beloved creation we raise our voices and sing:

SANCTUS (sung by the choir)

Sanctus, Sanctus, Sanctus,
Dominus Deus Sabaoth.
Pleni sunt coeli et terra gloria tua.
Osanna in excelsis.

*Holy, holy, holy Lord God of power and might.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.*

To you be glory, almighty God,
because on the night before he died,
Jesus took bread,
when he had given thanks,
he broke it, gave it to his disciples, and said:
Take, eat, this is my body
which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup;
when he had given thanks,
he gave it to them and said:
Drink this all of you.
This is my blood of the new covenant,
Poured out for you and for many;
do this to remember me.

Great is the mystery of faith.

All: Christ has died. Christ is ris - en. Christ will come a - gain.

Recalling Christ's death and resurrection,
we ask you to accept this, our sacrifice of praise.
Pour out your Holy Spirit on us gathered here,
and on these gifts of bread and wine
that we may be fed with the body and blood of your Son.
When all of creation groans, unite us in Christ and give us your hope that we might be strengthened to do your work, as your body in the world.
Through Christ our Redeemer, in the power of the Spirit, all praise and glory be yours, Almighty God, now and forever.

All: A - men, A - men, A - - men.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

God of promise,
you prepare a banquet for us in your kingdom.

All: Happy are those who are called to the supper of the Lamb.

THE COMMUNION

The gifts of God for the people of God.

All: Thanks be to God.

All are invited to receive communion. Please follow the Greeters' instructions. Receiving bread or wine is considered full communion. It is the practice of the ACC not to dip the bread into the wine. Any not receiving communion are invited to receive a blessing, and to indicate that by holding their arms crossed on their chest.

If you are unable to come to a communion station please make this known to the Greeters and we will bring communion to you.

Gluten free wafers for communion are available. Please request them from the person who is distributing the bread.

We invite those wishing prayer for themselves or on behalf of someone else to come to the front of the line to receive the bread and wine. Immediately after receiving, go to the prayer station in the south Quadra entrance. Briefly state your need. The prayer team will lay hands on your shoulders and will pray quietly for you.

BENEDICTUS AND AGNUS DEI Sung by the choir

Benedictus qui venit
in nomine Domini.
Osanna in excelsis.

*Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.*

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
miserere nobis.

*Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world,
have mercy on us.*

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi,
dona nobis pacem.

*Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world,
grant us peace.*

A motet may also be sung by the choir.

After the Communion, silence is kept.

White Gifts – Sunday, December 15th

White gifts have typically been toys for children or appropriate gifts for adults, wrapped and labelled with age and gender. This year, the Burnside Gorge Community Centre has given us a "wish list", with the name/age of a child or adult, so that when you go shopping you can choose a gift knowing that this is something a person wants or needs. We will have a collection of cards with these details at Coffee Hour (please see Dorothy Chuhuran), so that if you wish to choose a particular person to buy for you will be able to do so. First names only, to maintain confidentiality - we ask that you let us know if you have made the purchase, so that we can notify the Centre which gifts have been purchased, and for whom. (Similar to the process involved in purchasing gifts through Santa's Anonymous.)

You are also welcome to purchase a gift as in the past, with a simple "age/gender" designation on the gift.

The families and children of the Burnside Gorge Community Centre look forward to these gifts every year and are very appreciative of the generosity of St. John's parishioners. The Centre has operated for over twenty years with thirty staff and provides personalized services to over 500 families each year.

Announcements

A Prayer Group prays through the week; to request confidential prayers for yourself or others contact Pat Manning or leave the request at the church office.

Prayer is the bedrock of our relationship with God through Christ. Individual requests for intercessory prayer (read at Sunday and weekday services) may be made by filling out a Prayer Request Card available at the back of the church (on the west wall) or by emailing the same information requested on the card to: admin@stjohnthedivine.bc.ca.

Blue envelopes 2020: Blue envelopes for next year will be considered by Parish Council at the December meeting. If you have a suggestion for outreach the parish should consider supporting this way please give me details and a short rationale. I will compile all your ideas and circulate to Parish Council.

Please leave a note for me (Chris Eve) at the office or email me at ceve@stjohnthedivine.bc.ca

Thank you to the youth group: Sir James Douglas School did a food drive for our food bank and last Friday evening the youth group sorted the food so we could put it away in the store room. Thanks to the kids who collected over 60 boxes of food and to our youth group for sorting it all. I know our clients will appreciate all the wonderful food items that we received.

The Special Blue Envelope for December is The Rector's Discretionary Fund

This provides the rector with money that he can give away and use at his discretion. It could be to help a family in the parish whose house burned down. It could be used to buy a sandwich for a street person. It allows the parish to help people quietly and gives the rector a budget that he can use as he sees fit without getting approval from wardens, parish council, or vestry.

PWRDF MOMENT! This Sunday at coffee is your last chance to purchase PWRDF Christmas Cards! For $25 (a tax receipt will be issued,) you will receive 12 beautiful cards! Also, make sure you pick up a copy of the "2019 Alternate Christmas Gift Giving Catalogue". It is available with the current (Dec.) Anglican Journal. Extra copies can also be picked up from the PWRDF table at coffee today! Thank you for supporting the world's most vulnerable people with PWRDF gifts this Christmas.

Karyn & Gerry

Have you considered paying your church contributions by automatic debit or by credit card? Many people already do so and find it a convenient way to take care of their regular commitments to the church month by month. You can renew your commitment by simply completing the appropriate section of the 2020 Pledge card.

New Automatic Debits

If you wish to START using Automatic Debit you can do so by completing a Pledge Card or by using the Automatic Debit pamphlet found at the back of the church and at the garden door. Just fill in the Pledge Card or the Automatic Debit pamphlet authorization and attach a 'VOID' cheque from your bank account to confirm your bank and account identification numbers. Place both in an envelope, mark it "For Automatic Debit," and place it in the offering plate or give it to the Church Office. Your account will be debited either monthly or twice monthly, as you choose, to coincide with the bank debit dates, which are the 15th and the last day of the month.

New Credit Card Debits

If you wish to START using VISA or MASTERCARD you can do so by completing a Pledge Card. Just fill in the Pledge Card and ensure that your card numbers and expiry date are shown on it, which should then be put into an envelope, marked "For Credit Card Debit," and placed in the offering plate or given in to the Church Office. Your account will be debited at the mid-month.

SOUL SPACE

Things to nourish our spiritual journey.

BC:AD

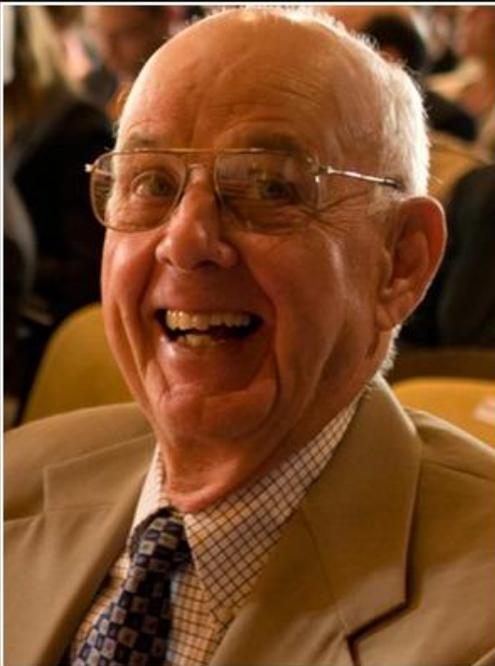

This was the moment when Before
Turned into After, and the future's Uninvented timekeepers presented arms.

This was the moment when nothing
Happened. Only dull peace
Sprawled boringly over the earth.

This was the moment when even energetic Romans
Could find nothing better to do
Than counting heads in remote provinces.

And this was the moment
When a few farm workers and three Members of an obscure Persian sect
Walked haphazard by starlight straight
Into the kingdom of heaven.

U A Fanthorpe

The Christian gospel is a summons to peace, calling for justice beyond anger, mercy beyond justice, forgiveness beyond mercy, love
beyond forgiveness.
