Invitation "Sweet Hour of Prayer"

Church Family,

Here are a few things I'm excited about. First, this morning we'll be collecting and praying for the shoeboxes we've assembled for Operation Christmas Child. These shoeboxes filled with toys and other goodies will be sent all over the world to children who otherwise wouldn't receive anything for Christmas. Missionaries will pass them out and use the joy and excitement of Christmas to tell the children that Jesus loves them and died on the cross to pay for their sins. Thank you so much to everyone who put together a shoebox or donated money to the cause.

Second, Wednesday nights have been going really well the last couple of months. Our AWANA program and S2 Youth Group have successfully relaunched and are back in excellent condition. Our Wednesday night Prayer Meeting has also been going great. I think it's one of the best kept secrets in our church. We don't usually have a big attendance, so it'd be a perfect service for you to attend if you're still nervous about getting out in crowds. There have been wonderful times of sharing and praise reports. I have felt a great freedom in my preaching and have been preaching my little heart out the last few weeks with just a few people in that big Sanctuary. If you're not involved in the nursery, in AWANA, or with our youth group, why don't you come and join us Wednesday night.

Finally, I'm also happy to report that after a 33-week hiatus our Sunday night programming is back up and running smoothly. We've had 30 children coming for Nativity Play practice. Bro. Josh has been having a great time of discipleship with our teenagers. I've started a new, short series of sermons called "The Best News" that uses some material published by Dr. James Merritt, pastor of Cross Point Church in Duluth, GA, that equips God's people with a passion and a plan for sharing the gospel. Last week was our first week in the series. Tonight we will pick up with week 2. Won't you join us tonight!
