

Becoming the Church We All Need: week one: "we need one another" follow-up discussion questions

- What was something specific from the message this past Sunday that connected with us (an encouragement, a challenge, a new way of thinking)?
 - What questions arise out of this for us?
- So, how important has the body of Christ been to our lives with God? (think about the birth, growth, sustenance of your faith).
- Talk together about the importance of clarifying our need, rather than simply defaulting to our wants when it comes to how we be the church together.
- In what ways have we felt our need for one another in Christ in this last season? In regard to our life with God, what have been the gifts and the challenges of this last season?
- What is your response to Larry Crabb's statement: "A spiritual community, a church, is full of broken people who turn their chairs toward each other because they know they cannot make it alone."
 - How could we more intentionally live this out together (as a larger church, and in huddles)?
- Have you ever thought of spiritual disciplines not as what you do, but how you become attentive and receptive to what God is doing?
 - How would this change things for you?

Moving Forward: Where do we hear God's invitation in this?

- How could we live into this more together?
- Who might God be inviting us to invite into the journey with us?
