TAQS FOR GALATIANS 2:11-14
DEFENDING THE GOSPEL
SOUTHGATE ALLIANCE CHURCH
NOVEMBER 15, 2020

Read Galatians 2:11-14

Why does Paul tell this story of his confrontation with Peter?

What was the issue and why was it so wrong?

Who else was led astray with this compromise? See 2:13.

Paul has been defending his calling as an Apostle (see 1:11-12). How does this passage demonstrate Paul's authority?

In Galatians, Paul doesn't tell us how Peter and the others responded. Were they convinced by Paul's argument? See 2 Peter 3:15-16 (written many years later) and Acts 15:5-12 (written a little time after Galatians).

Why was eating together such a big deal?

What was hypocritical about the actions of the Jewish Christians in Antioch?

Why does Paul say that these actions would force the Gentiles to live like Jews?

How might we give the wrong impression to new believers regarding the simplicity of the gospel today?
