the DISCIPLINE of SERVING

Even though I am free of the demands and expectations of everyone, I have voluntarily become a servant to any and all in order to reach a wide range of people: religious, nonreligious, meticulous moralists, loose-living immoralists...

...I entered their world and tried to experience things from their point of view. I've become just about every sort of servant there is in my attempts to lead those I meet into a God-saved life. 1 Corinthians 9:19-23 (the message)

...we can become like Christ by doing one thing—
by following him in the overall style of life he chose for himself.

Dallas Willard

CROSS + FIT

In your relationships with one another, have the same mindset as Christ Jesus:
Who being in the very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be used to his own advantage; rather he made himself nothing by taking the very nature of a servant being made in human likeness.
And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled be becoming obedient to death—even death on the cross.

Philippians 2:5-8

served but to serve

...the righteous will answer him, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you something to drink? When did we see you a stranger and invite you in, or needing clothes and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go visit you?'

The King will reply, 'Truly I tell, whatever you did for the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me.'

Matthew 25:37-40
