Born July 19, 1967 Died November 14, 2020

In our day of thanksgiving one psalm let us offer
 For the saints who before us have found their reward;
 When the shadow of death fell upon them, we sorrowed,
 But now we rejoice that they rest in the Lord.

In the morning of life, and at noon, and at even,
 He called them away from our worship below;
 But not till his love, at the font and the altar,
 Had girt them with grace for the way they should go.

These stones that have echoed their praises are holy,
 And dear is the ground where their feet have once trod;
 Yet here they confessed they were strangers and pilgrims,
 And still they were seeking the city of God.

Sing praise, then, for all who here sought and here found him,
 Whose journey is ended, whose perils are past:
 They believed in the Light; and its glory is round them,
 Where the clouds of earth's sorrow are lifted at last.

The Order for the Burial of the Dead

Worship Guides

- In general, we sit to listen, kneel to pray, and stand to sing.
- PB stands for the Book of Common Prayer; please identify it in the pew in front of you so you can be ready at the appropriate times. Do the same with the hymnal; please sing with us!
- We are here to worship—to enter into heaven, where Ed is now in spirit, at God’s throne. If you become lost in the service, simply follow as best you can, worshipping God in the beauty of holiness.
- The Reformed Episcopal Church invites all baptized Christians who love our divine Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ in sincerity and truth to the Lord’s Table. Christ truly gives Himself to the faithful in the Holy Supper; we hope you will find Him, and discover yourself found by Him. Please participate reverently—in faith, hope, and love.

Serving today

In paradisum

Into the paradise of God may the Angels lead him; and at thy coming may the Martyrs receive him, and take him into the holy City Jerusalem. May all the Choirs of Angels welcome him; and with Lazarus, once a beggar, may God grant him rest eternal.

Closing Prayer

O LORD, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in thy mercy grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last. Amen.
