

Reformation Events

Special Morning Reformation Service Assistance required at LCOS: We are planning a unique Service at 9 and 11 am on October 29th and require some assistance.

- Do you read and speak German?
- Do you own a German Bible?
- Do you own a Bible in another language?
- Do you own a large/grand Bible?
- Would you be willing to serve as an acolyte on October 29th? (The Webster dictionary of an acolyte is: one who assists a member of the clergy in a liturgical service by performing minor duties such as procession, lighting candles)
- Would you be willing to cook a German Potato Salad?
- Would you be willing to provide some traditional German desserts such as Apple Strudel or German Chocolate Cake?

Special Reformation Choir for LCOS: A 500th anniversary doesn't come along very often – so here's a chance to be a part of something special. A once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!

As part of the celebrations we will be creating a special reformation choir to sing a "grand" version of Luther's most famous hymn and the anthem of the Lutheran Church – A Mighty Fortress.

We hope to have this special choir sing at both services on Oct. 29 (the end of 9am and the start of 11am). And we invite ANYONE to join us. We will hold three practices: on Oct. 1, 15, and 22 (not on Thanksgiving) immediately following the 11 am service on Oct. 1 and 22 and immediately following the 9am service on Oct. 15

Email Alex at alex.mckay.2761@gmail.com if you have questions and to let him know you plan to participate (so we have enough copies of the music for everyone). If you are unable to make it to one of the practices you are also still welcome.

This invitation is open to everyone if you have ever:

Sung in a choir? Sung indoors? Sung outdoors? Heard a song?

Special Evening of October 29th Worship Service: 500th Commemoration of the Reformation Common Prayer Service as prepared by the Roman Catholic Church and the Lutheran World Federation is on Sun Oct 29th at 5:00 pm at Cathedral Church of the Redeemer (604 1 St SE) with Bishop William McGrattan & Bishop Larry Kochendorfer.

2017 marks the 500th anniversary of the Reformation: We at LCOS are joining Lutherans across Canada by participating in the Reformation Challenge to commemorate the 500th anniversary of the beginning of the Reformation. To demonstrate our excitement and recognition of the Reformation the National Church has adopted the theme “Liberated by God’s Grace” and three sub themes of “Salvation—not for sale”, “Human Beings—Not for Sale” and “Creation—Not for sale/Caring for Creation”.

Reformation Events are happening around the City during the month of October. Please pick up your October Vine for a list. In addition, if you are willing to drive or need transportation to these events check out the sign-up sheets in the lobby appearing soon.
