Guidance on Spiritual Communion and Coronavirus

(from the Church of England, authorized by Bishop David Edwards)

On this 6th Sunday after Pentecost, we share in Spiritual Communion. The term 'Spiritual Communion' has been used historically to describe the means of grace by which a person, prevented for some serious reason from sharing in a celebration of the Eucharist, nonetheless shares in the communion of Jesus Christ. This period of Covid-19 recovery is one such time. Spiritual Communion offers Christians an opportunity to give thanks for our communion with Jesus when we would ordinarily be able to partake bread and wine at the Eucharist.

The Church is not defined by the walls of a building but by the Body of Christ of which we are members. In making our communion spiritually, we are joining with Christians everywhere to be nourished by the one who tells us, 'I am the Bread of Life'.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

We pray together:

Lord, have mercy. Christ, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Jesus said, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.' John 6.35

Lord Jesus Christ, we give thanks for your saving death and resurrection, and we ask You to be with us now.

Thanks be to you, Lord Jesus Christ,
for all the benefits you have given us,
for all the pains and insults you have borne for us.

Since we cannot now receive you sacramentally,
We ask you to come spiritually into our hearts.

O most merciful redeemer, friend, and brother, may we know you more clearly, love you more dearly, and follow you more nearly, day by day. Amen.     Adapted from the Prayer of St Richard of Chichester

Lord, in these days of mercy, make us quiet and prayerful.

in these days of challenge, make us stronger in you.

in these days of emptiness, take possession of us.

in these days of waiting, open our hearts to the mystery of your cross. Amen.     Angela Ashwin

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we your unworthy servants give you most humble and hearty thanks for all your goodness and loving kindness.

We bless you for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for your immeasurable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ, for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And give us, we pray, such a sense of all your mercies that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth your praise, not only with our lips but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to your service, and by walking before you in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, be all honour and glory, for ever and ever. Amen

The Lord's Prayer

Prayer after Spiritual Communion

Celebrating Birthdays & Anniversaries!

Happy birthday to Chelsea Wilson, Richard Dennique, Vivian Belyea, Janet McBride, and anyone else celebrating a birthday!

Happy anniversary to anyone else celebrating their special day!

May God bless you with boundless love, calming peace, and heavenly joy through the coming year!

Families Helping Families in July

Thank you to those who continue to help Wes Corey & the fine staff at the River deliver meals to seniors and shut-ins who are challenged by the Covid-19 lockdown: Nancy & Bobby English, Zoe Frame, and Royce Brown. The program will continue until the end of July. God bless you all!

During the Covid-19 Yellow Recovery Phase

Our Operational Plan is still in place. Expect things to be different when you come to worship, including screening, your temperature will be taken, hand sanitizing, physical distancing, and no singing, following provincial guidelines.

For everyone's safety

Anyone who is high risk, including elderly and people with underlying health issues, are asked to remain at home for your safety and protection.

If you have cold or flu symptoms, please remain at home and come when you are feeling well.

We are Called to Bear Fruit!

Jesus said: "As for what was sown on good soil, this is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields, in one case hundredfold, in another sixty, and in another thirty."

Matthew 13:23
