The Table on Water

Keeping Steady When You Wobble

Psalm 107

- Introduction: Give Thanks to the Lord; for he is good; his love endures forever. Let the redeemed of the Lord tell their story—those he redeemed from the hand of the foe, those he gathered from the lands, from east and west, from north and south.
- Conclusion: Let the one who is wise heed these things and ponder the loving deeds of the Lord.

Psalm 107

- Wandering Wobblers (4-9)
- Wretched Wobblers (10-16)
- Weak Wobblers (17-22)
- Water Wobblers (23-32)

Acts 27: 33-38

Acts 27: 33-38

- Just before dawn Paul urged them all to eat. “For the last fourteen days,” he said, “you have been in constant suspense and have gone without food—you haven’t eaten anything. Now I urge you to take some food. You need it to survive. Not one of you will lose a single hair from his head.” After he said this, he took some bread and gave thanks to God in front of them all. Then he broke it and began to eat. They were all encouraged and ate some food themselves. Altogether there were 276 of us on board. When they had eaten as much as they wanted, they lightened the ship by throwing the grain into the sea.
