

A Christmas Message from Bishop Lincoln...

What can I give Him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
If I were a Wise Man, I would do my part;
Yet what I can I give Him: give my heart.

C. Rosetti. In the Bleak Midwinter

Dear people of the Territory...

Most of us know this hymn, and it is my personal favourite of the Christmas hymns.

I usually get too choked up to sing this last verse because it captures the beauty of Christmas.

The God who loves us in spite of all we do, has sent Jesus into the world to give us a better way. To give us hope that we are not lost or forgotten. To shine light in dark places.

All we can do is give our utmost in return. Not our partial, not just when its convenient, but our all.

The new year will bring us just as many challenges and blessings as 2020 has, but with confidence and faith in Christ, we can continue to give our all to God, through the church and in our communities. To love, to serve, and to share the hope of a God who loves and cares.

A God of love, who became like us.

May we all be blessed to be transformed by God's love which has come into the world.

A Blessed Christmas to you all...

Prayer for December 20th — Fourth Sunday in Advent

*Oh, Adonai, dearest Lord, Compassionate God of justice, so many areas of my life seem imprisoned but you promise me real freedom and peace in my life.
Renew my spirit and free my soul.*

Please, open my heart which you have bathed in the longing of Advent.

*I am awe-struck as your glory fills the earth and I want to follow you in caring for others.
Grant me the grace to see how you shine your light on the poor who have such a special place in your heart.*

Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel!
