

Shepherd and Sheep

The 4th Sunday of Easter is sometimes called the “Sunday of the Good Shepherd”: no matter what year it is, the Gospel lesson is from John 10 where Jesus talks about himself as the Good Shepherd, and we use the 23rd Psalm, which is also the basis of this crossword.

Today's lessons:

- Acts 4:5-12 Peter uses the fact that he and John have been arrested and have to stand trial for preaching about Jesus in public to once again proclaim Jesus as the Saviour.
- Psalms 23 The relationship between God and his people is like that between a shepherd and his sheep.
- 1 John 3:16-24 We are to love one another because we have God's love for us in our hearts, commanding our actions.
- John 10:11-18 Jesus describes himself as the good shepherd from Psalm 23, who lives and dies for his sheep.
